FOREWORD

"People of the Spirit" was the theme for our 51st General Council in Denver, Colorado, August 2-5, 2005.

The Council was marked by great unity and anointed worship and ministry. For the first time in our history, the evening services were televised internationally. We are grateful to the Inspirational Network for making these services available to millions of people throughout the world.

Parallel to the General Council, over 13,000 young people participated in the Fine Arts Festival. Their evening services were likewise marked by the Spirit's presence, with many young people baptized in the Holy Spirit.

We look forward to the next General Council in Indianapolis, Indiana, August 8-11, 2007, should Jesus tarry.

May the Lord richly bless you!

MINUTES OF THE 51st GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD CONVENED AT DENVER, COLORADO AUGUST 2-5, 2005

TUESDAY EVENING—AUGUST 2

The 51st General Council began with a 7 o'clock service at the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colorado, with Thomas E. Trask, general superintendent, as the keynote speaker.

Prior to the evening service televised by Inspiration Network, 30 minutes of perservice music was provided by a combined choir from Central Assembly of God, Springfield, Missouri, Tom Matrone, director, and Northland Cathedral, Kansas City, Missouri, Ron Steen, director, and Kristy Starling, Lakeside Assembly of God, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Assistant General Superintendent Charles T. Crabtree served as chairman for the service.

The service opened with a welcome video, followed by the Presentation of Colors and the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by Kristy Starling.

The theme for the 51st General Council was "People of the Spirit."

G. Robert Cook, Jr., superintendent of the Rocky Mountain District, read the Scripture and Dennis J. Rivera, superintendent of the Central Latin American District, offered prayer for the General Council. Thomas E. Trask greeted the delegates and recognized special guests including U.S. Representative Marilyn Musgrave, who represents Colorado's Fourth Congressional District. She brought greetings in behalf of the State of Colorado and extended a welcome to the 51st General Council.

James K. Bridges, general treasurer, received the offering. The combined choir from Central Assembly of God, Springfield, Missouri, and Northland Cathedral, Kansas City, Missouri, provided the offertory. Power Company Choir, Marlette, Michigan, under the direction of John Gunn, provided music for the service.

The keynote message for the 51st General Council was brought by General Superintendent Thomas E. Trask. He laid out the challenges and opportunities facing the Fellowship. Trask noted how the Assemblies of God has grown from 300 people 91 years ago to more than 53 million worldwide today, indicating that the church faces a daunting task in reaching an increasingly secular society. "It's not a matter of simply inviting the unchurched to services. Those who don't attend church often have no understanding that Jesus was sinless, that Satan is real, that salvation is through grace, and that God is the Creator and present-day ruler of the universe. Stirring worship music won't attract them because worship isn't even on their radar screen. More comfortable pews cannot compete with the easy chair or the bed that already serve the unchurched person. Church events cannot effectively compete with what the world has to offer. But the church does have one thing to offer that can't be found elsewhere: a life-changing, authentic encounter and ongoing relationship with the living God."

He further stated: "The Assemblies of God is uniquely positioned as a Spiritempowered movement to offer solutions to those searching for meaning. God raised up the Assemblies of God to become a people of Pentecostal power, not to just be another denomination. Pentecostals need to resist Satan's temptation to fade into the religious landscape and be consumed with religious activities. It's not about looks. It's not about a degree. It's not about talents or gifts. It's not about offices or titles. Those who lead others to God must themselves be in tune with the Holy Spirit. A Spirit-led person has a personal relationship with God; prays and fasts; has integrity; is passionate about God's Word and loves those who aren't easy to love."

Trask further admonished the audience to watch their lives and doctrine closely. "In an era of growing moral relativism, it's tempting to preach what is popular rather than what is biblical. Walking in the Spirit also means living victorious, upright, moral, and godly lives. He stressed the importance of not relegating the baptism in the Holy Spirit, with the initial physical evidence of speaking in tongues, to secondary status. If we fail to preach, teach, and provide opportunity for men and women to receive this glorious Baptism, we as leaders will be held responsible. You can make a difference as a man or woman of God. Let it be said, 'There is a man of God in our city.'"

Departmental/Divisional Reports

The general superintendent called attention to the Departmental/Divisional Reports which were presented to the delegates in the form of a computer disk in the back cover of the Biennial Report.

General Superintendent's Medal of Honor

The General Superintendent's Medal of Honor was presented by the general superintendent to the following two outstanding laypersons:

Marilyn Musgrave

She is one of only 69 women in the United States Congress and in her first session stood out from her colleagues when Newsweek magazine selected her as the "rising star" within the House and the National Journal referenced her as one of two freshman congressmen to watch. Our General Superintendent's Medal of Honor recipient, Marilyn Musgrave, represents Colorado's 4th Congressional district, a post she was elected to in 2002 and reelected in 2004.

A longtime Republican Party and pro-life activist, she previously served on the Fort Morgan School Board, in the Colorado House of Representatives and the Colorado State Senate prior to her national election. She became best known for her advocacy of a constitutional amendment that would ban same-sex marriage. Her Federal Marriage Amendment declares marriage is reserved for one man and one woman. Her voting record reflects the agenda of the Christian right and conservatives leading the National Journal to describe her as a "tenacious advocate of conservative social causes."

She has received numerous awards and commendations since going to Congress. Yet Marilyn Musgrave doesn't consider her political career to be the pinnacle of her life. "It's wonderful to pursue this stage of my life, but the earlier part of my life was more important," she said. "Then I was shaping four little human beings. It's an awesome responsibility to mold a child's life."

Marilyn and her husband Steve have two sons and two daughters ranging in age from 24 to 34. "The days my children were born were the happiest days of my life," she says. Now her five grandchildren give her opportunities to create precious memories again.

Marilyn and Steve have long been active in their local assembly, the Sanctuary. Pastor Ben Baughman has known Marilyn as a politician, friend, and congregant for over 12 years. He and his wife Brenda have prayed with and for Marilyn since her school board election days. "Marilyn has always sought God on the moves she's made," Pastor Baughman says. "Our church supports her in prayer because she's family." When she is able to return to Fort Morgan during legislative recesses, her pastor doesn't sense that she is consumed with politics. "Mothering and grandmothering are what she loves more than anything," he says. And the most joyful times in her life continue to be at family gatherings.

For a life of service, bringing glory to God and to this Fellowship, it gives me great pleasure to confer upon Marilyn Musgrave the church's highest award for laypersons—The General Superintendent's Medal of Honor.

Wil Balch

When God calls a person to follow Him, He intends that call to be evident in every aspect of one's life, especially in relations with others. Our General Superintendent's Medal of Honor recipient has poured himself into building people. His life testifies to his passion to serve God in the workplace.

As a business owner, Wil Balch would mentor his employees, bringing many to faith in Christ and then instilling in them their responsibility to give back to their church and the community.

An active church leader, Wil has served on many boards and committees for his congregation. But everyone who knows him recognizes his big passion is for missions. He served on local missions committees and also served on the World Missions Board for the Fellowship. He is relentless when it comes to giving to missions. As a layman at Bethel Church in San Jose, Brother Balch directed the missions programs. Under his leadership the church's budget grew to well over $1 million each year. He has never lost that fervor. Working with a new church plant in Grace Community Church, he has grown the missions budget to $75,000 annually and seen the church support 50 missionaries.

"His integrity is above reproach when it comes not only to his business, but his life," states Pastor and son-in-law Damon Gilliland. "He is highly respected by the men of our church who are half his age. His way of encouraging the people of our church is one that is admired by many who endeavor to follow his example." Everywhere Wil goes, people always love to be in his presence. Why? Because of his commitment to Jesus Christ and the church that Christ died for.

Wil and his wife of 54 years, Lafonda, have five children, 21 grandchildren, and 5 great-grandchildren. They would attest that their greatest accomplishment is that all their children and grandchildren are honoring and serving the Lord. A truly humble man, Wil Balch gives all of the credit for his accomplishments to the Lord Jesus Christ. He is highly esteemed by his family, friends, and associates.

For an exemplary life, bringing glory and honor to God and to this church, it is my privilege to confer upon Wil Balch the General Superintendent's Medal of Honor.

Resolution 1. Credentialing of Divorced and Remarried Persons (Unfinished business from the 2003 General Council)

Larry Griswold, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented Resolution 1 as follows and moved its adoption:

- The General Council in session in 2003 adopted the following recommendation from the General Presbytery:
- RESOLVED, That the resolution submitted by the North Texas District to the General Council regarding preconversion divorce be referred to the General Council, and that the General Presbytery request that the General Council table the North Texas District resolution until the 2005 General Council with a recommendation that an accompanying position paper articulating the biblical position of the credentialing of ministers with the preconversion divorce be presented alongside the North Texas District resolution to the 2005 General Council.

The resolution submitted by the North Texas District is as follows:

- WHEREAS, The General Council of the Assemblies of God, from its inception, has held the institution of marriage in highest regard, demonstrating to a fallen world the biblical concept of the covenant relationship between husband and wife, patterned after Christ and the Church; and
- WHEREAS, Scripture clearly states that ministers of the gospel are to be above reproach in all matters of life and conduct and that our theology should shape our culture instead of our theology being shaped by our culture; and
- WHEREAS, Scripture teaches that ministers should be the husband or wife of but one living spouse; and
- WHEREAS, Bylaws changes in the last General Council give the appearance of condoning divorce and remarriage among credentialed ministers, thereby departing from biblical guidelines upheld in Titus 1:5-9 and 1 Timothy 3:12; and
- WHEREAS, We maintain a desire to impede the lowering of morality within our churches, where divorce rates approach those of the world; and
- WHEREAS, The 87th North Texas District Council of the Assemblies of God went on record as upholding scriptural standards in the credentialing of ministers; and
- WHEREAS, The council in session directed the North Texas District Council to present the following resolution to the next General Council in session; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That General Council Bylaws, Article VII, Section 2, paragraph i, page 118, which presently reads:
  - i. Marriage status. We disapprove of any married person holding ministerial credentials with the Assemblies of God or district councils granting credentials to such, if either marriage partner has a former spouse living, unless the divorce occurred prior to his or her conversion except as hereinafter provided.

Be amended to read as follows:

i. Marriage status. We disapprove of any married person holding ministerial credentials with the Assemblies of God or district councils granting credentials to such, if either marriage partner has a former companion living, except as hereinafter provided.

And be it further

- RESOLVED, That Article VII, Section 2, paragraph j, page 118, which presently reads:
  - j. Annulments, marriage dissolutions, and divorces. The Executive Presbytery shall have the authority to determine whether an applicant's annulment of a former marriage is consistent with the scriptural position of the Fellowship relating to the granting or holding of ministerial credentials; or, in the case of a divorce or a dissolution whether the circumstances would more appropriately be classified as calling for an annulment; or if the divorce occurred prior to conversion. In those cases involving preconversion divorce, they shall be decided on an individual basis just as those that deal with annulments are decided. The application for an annulment must be accompanied by clear and satisfactory evidence of an illegal marriage through deception or fraud. Appeals from the decisions of the Executive Presbytery may be made to the General Presbytery.

Be amended to read as follows:

j. Annulments and marriage dissolutions. The Executive Presbytery shall have authority to determine whether an applicant's annulment of a former marriage is consistent with the scriptural position of the Fellowship relating to the granting or holding of ministerial credentials; or, in the case of a divorce or a dissolution, whether the circumstances would more appropriately be classified as calling for an annulment. The application must be accompanied by clear and satisfactory evidence of an illegal marriage through deception or fraud. Appeals from the decision of the Executive Presbytery may be made to the General Presbytery.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That Article IX, B, Section 5, paragraph c. (1), page 128, which presently reads:

(1) Standard for offices of bishop, or elder, and deacon. Since the New Testament restricts divorced and remarried believers from the church offices of bishop, or elder, and deacon, we recommend that this standard be upheld by all our assemblies (Titus 1:5-9; 1 Timothy 3:12), except when the divorce occurred prior to conversion (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Be amended to read as follows:

(1) Standard for offices of bishop, or elder, and deacon. Since the New Testament restricts divorced and remarried believers from the church office of bishop, or elder, and deacon, we recommend that the standard be upheld by all our assemblies (Titus 1:5-9; 1 Timothy 3:12). However, we recommend that all other opportunities for Christian service for which these believers may be qualified be made available to them.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That Article IX, B, Section 5, paragraph e, page 129, which presently reads:

e. Ministerial credentials. We disapprove of any married minister of the Assemblies of God holding credentials if either minister or spouse has a former spouse living unless the divorce occurred prior to conversion. (See also Article VII, Section 2, paragraphs i. and j.)

Be amended to read as follows:

e. Ministerial credentials. We disapprove of any married minister of the Assemblies of God holding credentials if either minister or spouse has a former companion living. (See also Article VII, Section 2, paragraphs i. and j.)

A motion prevailed that the vote on this resolution be by secret ballot.

A motion was made and seconded raising objection to the consideration of Resolution I. The motion lost.

A motion was made and seconded to refer the matter of a biblical basis for the approval of a preconversion divorce along with the issue of a biblical basis for ecclesiastical annulment to a committee appointed by the general superintendent and approved by the Executive Presbytery, with a request that this committee bring back a report to the next General Council in session. The motion lost.

A motion prevailed that the word "companion" on page 2, line 14, and page 4, line 4, be amended to read: spouse.

A secret ballot was cast. The chairman of the Tellers Committee reported the results of the secret ballot as follows:

Total votes cast	2,705
Yes votes	713
No votes	1.992

The chairman declared that the motion to adopt Resolution 1 was lost.

A Summary and Comparison of Arguments For and Against the Credentialing of Ministers With a Preconversion Divorce (Prepared by the Commission on Doctrinal Purity)

The General Council in session on August 1, 2003, responding to a recommendation of the General Presbytery, moved to direct the preparation of a position paper articulating the biblical position of the credentialing of ministers with the [sic] preconversion divorce to be presented alongside the North Texas District Resolution to the 2005 General Council.

The Executive Presbytery directed that such a paper be prepared by the Commission on Doctrinal Purity (CDP) with the understanding that it be a terse summation of key points for and against the credentialing of ministers with a preconversion divorce.

Conscientiously working to fulfill its mandate, the CDP noted that arguments for and against the credentialing of divorced persons have been carefully formulated and thoroughly examined over the years by a number of able committees acting at the direction of the Executive Presbytery and General Presbytery and/or the General Council. There is little to be said on the subject not already treated in their reports and resolutions, as well as in other resolutions presented to the General Council. The most important of these appear to be:

 1. 1973 Report to the General Council—Divorce and Remarriage (GC Minutes, pp.16-58)

Recognized biblical grounds for divorce and remarriage for laity but maintained the historic position of the Fellowship with regard to noncredentialing of divorced and remarried persons (not to exclude ecclesiastical annulments).

- 1983 Report to the General Council—Divorce and Remarriage and Qualifications of Ministers and Deacons (GC Minutes, pp.24-29)
   Strongly recommended maintaining the historic position of the Fellowship with regard to noncredentialing of divorced and remarried persons (not to exclude ecclesiastical annulments).
- 3. 1990 Report to the General Presbytery—Credentialing of Married Ministers Who Have a Living Former Spouse (GP Minutes, August 14, 1990, pp.20-37). Recommended that persons divorced and remarried prior to conversion, or with biblical grounds, be qualified for credentialing. Followed by a "minority report" recommending adherence to the historic AG position, this report, with its resolutions, was tabled.
- 4. 1991 Report to the General Presbytery—Credentialing Ministers With Marriage Entanglements (GP Minutes, August 5, 1991, pp.66-72)
  A careful review of the historic position of the AG with attention to the "husband of one wife" passages and credentialing of persons with a preconversion divorce/remarriage, followed by action to reaffirm the historic AG position.
- 5. 1991 General Council—Resolution 22 Ministers Who Have Been Divorced and Remarried (GC Minutes, pp.86-92)

  Sought conversel for condentialing of persons divorced on hibling and and an extension of persons divorced on hibling and an extension of persons divorced on hibling and an extension of persons divorced on hibling and a second of the persons divorced on hibling and a second of the persons divorced on hibling and a second of the persons divorced on hibling and a second of the persons divorced on hibling and a second of the persons divorced on hibling and a second of the persons divorced on the
  - Sought approval for credentialing of persons divorced on biblical grounds and subsequently remarried, as well as those having been divorced and remarried prior to conversion. The resolution failed to win adoption and the historic AG position was sustained.
- 6. 1997 General Council—Resolution 9 Credentialing of Divorced and Remarried Individuals (GC Minutes, pp.29-44) Sought approval for credentialing of persons with a preconversion divorce. The
- resolution failed to win adoption and the historic A/G position was sustained.
  7. 2001 General Council—Resolution 15 Credentialing of Divorced and Remarried Persons (GC Minutes, pp.51-54)
  - Resolution authorizing the credentialing of qualified persons who were divorced and remarried prior to conversion was adopted.
- 8. 2003 General Council—North Texas District Appeal: Credentialing of Divorced and Remarried Persons (GC Minutes, pp.70-72)
  - Restated historic arguments against credentialing of divorced and remarried persons and sought to repeal Resolution 15 (2001).

The CDP carefully reviewed these and other relevant documents and, for convenience and clarity, offers the following brief summation and comparison of the arguments pro and con:

Theses	Arguments AGAINST Credentialing Persons With a Preconversion Divorce and Remarriage	Arguments FOR Credentialing Persons With a Preconversion Divorce and Remarriage
Thesis 1	The historic position of the AG has been to deny ministerial	The historic position of the AG did not adequately weigh the "new creation"
Historic	credentials to divorced and	work of the Spirit and rested heavily on Position of	remarried persons (unless the	a faulty hermeneutical argument from

Until passage of Resolution 15 in 2001, the General Council periodically reaffirmed this	1 Timothy 3:2 and Titus 1:6 ("husband of one wife") to forbid the credentialing of divorced and remarried persons who felt called to ministry. The historic position is more strict that Scripture itself.

Thesis 2  Historic Position of the Christian Church	position believing that a hermeneutical shift on 1 Timothy 3:2 and Titus 1:6 reflects the subtle influence of western divorce culture rather than new light from the New Testament Greek text.  The prevailing position of the Christian church through the centuries has been to deny credentialed ministry to divorced and remarried persons. Modern changes to this prevailing interpretation appear to be an accommodation to moral deterioration in popular culture.	The prevailing positions of the Christian church through the centuries have sometimes embraced nonbiblical church traditions, as is demonstrated, until modern times, by the church's denial of credentialed ministry to women.
Thesis 3  "Husband of One Wife"	Scripture explicitly teaches that the minister is to be the "husband of one wife" (1 Timothy 3:2; Titus 1:6). The AG consistently	Paul's concern for sexual fidelity within a monogamous marriage is uppermost in his qualification that the Moreover, it has not been interpreted in the AG to prohibit the ministry of women, single persons, or those widowed and remarried. Standard translations of this crucial phrase from the Greek of the New Testament are:  • [Greek, mias gynaikos andra (1 Timothy 3:2); literally, "a one woman man"; mias gynaikos andra (Titus 1:6, phrase is the same as 1 Timothy 3:2 except for change of case with andr.].]  • NIV "the husband of but one wife"  • KJV, NKJV, NASB "the husband of one wife"  • NRSV "married only once"  The entire canon of Scripture places great weight on high qualifications for leaders who serve the church.	elder/overseer be a "the husband of one wife" ("one woman man," I Timothy 3:2; Titus 1:6). Beyond that, the precise meaning of the phrase is somewhat uncertain and, at various times, it has been interpreted by sincere students of Scripture to mean any one, or several, of the following:  1. A minister cannot be a woman.  2. A minister cannot be remarried after being widowed.  3. A minister cannot be an unmarried person.  4. A minister cannot be a divorced and remarried person.  5. A minister cannot have more than one spouse (polygamy/polyandry).  6. A minister must be sexually faithful to one spouse.  Therefore, this phrase must always be interpreted in light of the entire canon of Scripture which places great weight on the Spirit's new creation in the lives of previously sinful human beings.

Thesis 4	Divorce followed by remarriage to another partner may seriously	Preconversion sins such as murder, assault, drug dealing, drug and alcohol wife [one woman man]," is generally to be considered a prohibition of ministerial credentialing in such cases.

Thesis 5 Ecclesiastical Annulment	Relief via ecclesiastical annulment is provided in the event of marriages contracted through fraud or deceit so that such persons, upon affirmative adjudication of their circumstances, may be credentialed for ministry.	Eliminates the need for certain ecclesiastical annulments.
Thesis 6 New Creation	The new creation (2 Corinthians 5:17) effected in believers by the power of the Holy Spirit on the basis of the atoning death of Jesus Christ sets them free from even the vilest sins. However, the new creation deals with spiritual change and there is no thought of canceling all moral and social responsibility covenanted before conversion (1 Timothy 6:2; Philemon 18).	The new creation (2 Corinthians 5:17) effected in believers by the power of the Holy Spirit on the basis of the atoning death of Jesus Christ sets them free from even the vilest sins.  Therefore, all believers whom the Spirit renews, cleanses, equips, and calls to the ministry, including those with preconversion divorces/remarriages, are to be duly examined, approved, and credentialed by the church.
Thesis 7 Work of the Spirit	There is a visible and scriptural work of the Holy Spirit in calling and gifting repentant believers for ministry. But the subjective work of the Spirit is always in harmony with the objective word of Scripture and, therefore, consistent with Scripture, only equips divorced/remarried believers for noncredentialed ministries in the church.	There is a visible and scriptural work of the Holy Spirit in calling and gifting repentant believers for ministry. Therefore, the Spirit's evident call and gifts in the lives of persons with a preconversion divorce/remarriage should be respected, tested, and affirmed for credentialing, as are the call and giftings of all other persons.
Thesis 8 Ministry of Those Already Credentialed	The ministry of recently credentialed persons with a preconversion divorce/ remarriage will not be adversely affected by repeal of Resolution 15.	There are now nearly 500 persons with a preconversion divorce/remarriage who have been granted ministerial credentials and whose Spirit-anointed service is presently enriching the Church.

The Commission on Doctrinal Purity strongly affirms the biblical call that elders/overseers must be "above reproach" (1 Timothy 3:2) and have "a good reputation with outsiders" (1Timothy 3:7). This brief summary is intended as an aid to prayerful reflection in pursuit of that goal.

Resolution 9. National Placement Service

Resolution 9 was presented by the Resolutions Committee. A motion prevailed to adopt Resolution 9 as follows:

- WHEREAS, Resolution 21. National Placement Service To Serve Church Leadership, was adopted at the 50th General Council of the Assemblies of God in Washington, D.C., which read as follows:
- WHEREAS, Churches struggle with a pastoral selection process that can match their unique needs and culture with that of a qualified minister. Small churches are finding it increasingly difficult to locate qualified ministerial candidates. Senior pastors often find it difficult to find qualified staff to fill ministry positions. In order to serve local churches in the ministerial selection process, a national placement service is proposed; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That a national placement service (paid for by the users) be established that would do the following: assist ministerial candidates in locating ministry opportunities; train church leadership in a selection process; and help assess the culture of a particular church so the church can identify potential candidates that match their unique needs, values, and ministry focus. And
- WHEREAS The National Placement Service Committee was appointed by the Executive Presbytery to conduct research and bring back recommendations to the Executive Presbytery to implement Resolution 21; and
- WHEREAS, The National Placement Service Committee's research has raised a number of concerns that would make the specific implementation of the resolution problematic from a legal exposure standpoint, and implementation could be inconsistent with the current methods of placing ministers in our Fellowship; and
- WHEREAS, The spirit and intent behind Resolution 21 was not necessarily to create a structured national placement service, but to provide services to our churches that need assistance and coaching in the area of pastoral search and staff placement; and
- WHEREAS, Many churches in our Fellowship are having a difficult time filling ministry positions with qualified candidates; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the General Council repeal Resolution 21, since such a service could create potential legal exposure from a district and national level and could be inconsistent with the current methods of placing ministers in positions; and be it further
- RESOLVED, That the Center for Church Leadership of the General Council be asked to develop materials for leadership training and discover best practices currently employed throughout districts, which materials can be used to train church leaders in the pastoral selection process and assist pastors in finding staff qualified for positions; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the current Web-based information system that has been established for the music and children's ministries departments be expanded to include other areas of ministry and that an enhanced Web-based information system be considered by the Executive Presbytery to assist ministers looking for ministry opportunities and to assist churches looking for qualified candidates.

Resolution 10. Voluntary Cooperative Fellowship

Resolution 10 was presented by the Resolutions Committee. A motion prevailed to adopt Resolution 10 as follows:

- WHEREAS, A statement on voluntary cooperative fellowship has been historically included in the application for ministerial credentials; and
- WHEREAS, This statement should also be included in the General Council Bylaws; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That General Council Bylaws, Article VII, Section 2, page 118, be amended by the addition of the following paragraph g:
  - g. Voluntary Cooperation and Commitment to the Fellowship. An active loyalty to our constitutional agreements, a cooperative spirit, and a readiness to seek and receive the counsel of older mature Christians and those in positions of authority.
  - By voluntary it is meant that, upon learning the principles, doctrines, and practices of the Assemblies of God, and by seeing the benefits to be derived from being associated with such an organization, persons of their own free choice decide to become members, thus subscribing to all that for which the organization stands.
  - For the minister, by cooperation, it is meant, to the best of one's ability, complying with all decisions setting forth and defining duties and responsibilities incumbent upon members of the organization. It includes active participation and respect for the will of the majority expressed through constitutional processes.
  - Hence, for the minister, voluntary cooperation means that when the minister decides to become a cooperating member of the Assemblies of God, this cooperation and participation thereby becomes obligatory and not optional.

Also members from James River Assembly of God, Ozark, Missouri, were part of this choir. The choir was directed by Randy Quackenbush, minister of music, at James River Assembly of God, Ozark, Missouri.

Following the showing of a video and recognition of Assemblies of God ethnic leaders, worship was led by Erick Cooper and Nathan LaGrance from Lakeview Christian Temple, Indianapolis, Indiana. Scripture was read by Zollie L. Smith, Jr., executive presbyter from the Ethnic Fellowships and prayer for the service was offered by Nam Soo Kim, executive presbyter from the Language Area—Other. George O. Wood, general secretary, received the offering. The offertory was provided by the Colorado combined choir.

The speaker for the evening, John E. Lindell, pastor of James River Assembly of God, Ozark, Missouri, was introduced by Thomas E. Trask. Lindell recounted how in Acts 17, the apostle Paul wrote a letter repeatedly expressing grave concern to the church he had just visited in Thessalonica. Five times in the chapter Paul mentions the faith of church members. Lindell emphasized that faith is no less important today. "When it comes to ministry, the condition of your faith is critically important. There is a correlation between a person's level of faith and their fullness of the Holy Spirit, their attitude, and their blessing by God." He noted that Hebrews 11:6 says it is impossible for the Christian lacking faith to please God. He called for people to be willing to step out in faith and stated that living a life of faith may require a life of leaving.

Spiritual Life Committee Report

Ronald McManus read the report of the Spiritual Life Committee. The members of the committee were: Ronald F. McManus, chairman; Deborah M. Gill, Randy Hurst, Donald G. Meyer, and Isaac Canales. A time of prayer and intercession followed the reading of the report. The report as presented follows:

The committee met to seek God regarding its assignment. Throughout the history of our Fellowship, the Spiritual Life Report has been intended to offer a timely prophetic word to the Fellowship. The Spiritual Life Committee took very seriously the responsibility of seeking to hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

When the Lord appeared to John while he was "in the Spirit" on the island of Patmos to prepare the Church for the last days, Christ chose to say two things to the Church of that day and, we believe, to the Church today:

First, the Lord indicated He would continue to speak to His Church, to shape it, and to press His claims upon it. It is His Church; He died for it. And He will not allow it to become less than what He ordained it to be.

Second, He wanted the Church to know that He had won the ultimate victory—the Church should celebrate! Jesus has conquered death, hell, and the grave and is alive forevermore!

In the Lord's appearance to John on the island of Patmos, He spoke to seven churches in Asia Minor (present-day Turkey). To each of those churches, He revealed their spiritual condition, how they should repent, and what God had prepared for them. To each of these churches He declared, "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches" (Revelation 2:29, NKJV). May God help us today to press through the myriad of voices that are speaking to us and cause us to hear clearly what the Spirit is saying to our Fellowship.

We believe the Lord desires to do the same to each of us today.

The Spiritual Life Committee's report focuses on three questions:

- 1. What is the Spirit saying to our Fellowship?
- 2. What is the Spirit saying to your church/ministry?
- 3. What is the Spirit saying to you personally?

The committee prayerfully addressed these three questions. The questions were shared with a select group of pastors from across our Fellowship. Their input confirmed and supplemented that of the Spiritual Life Committee and is integrated in this report.

The first-century New Testament Church is our example. This Church changed the world. From an assembly of 3,000 people on the Day of Pentecost, believers moved into their world and, according to history, essentially turned it upside down. By the third century the known world was largely Christian. The principles, practices, and priorities of this New Testament Church must be revived in the Church today.

The principles of this church included humility of spirit. The apostles and early Christians consciously depended upon the Holy Spirit in everything they did. They acknowledged that without the Spirit's help they could not accomplish the work of the Kingdom. Their decisions were based on what they believed the Spirit was saying. Acts 15:28 states, "It seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us," acknowledging this reliance on the Spirit.

Servant leadership was a key principle of the Church. Jesus said, "The greatest among you will be your servant" (Matthew 23:11, NIV). Unfortunately many of today's churches are moving toward adopting corporate CEO models of leadership. Servant leadership is essential if the Kingdom is to be advanced in these days. In the New Testament Church, believers preferred one another—rather than competing with one another in ministry.

The practices of the first-century Church are a pattern for us to follow. Early Christians lived together in biblical relationship. They modeled the kingdom of God on earth. Their loving fellowship was a magnet to a spiritually hungry world. The manifestation or practice of koinonia must be renewed in the body of Christ if we are to be the Church that Jesus will use in these last days.

The New Testament Church sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit in evangelism. It was a common practice for believers to pray, seeking the Spirit's direction, before people were sent out in ministry. They maintained spiritual disciplines—continuing in the apostles' doctrine and prayer (Acts 2:42).

The priority of the first-century Church was the preaching of the Cross. Their message was Christ-centered. Present-day trends pressure Christians toward unity, but often leave Jesus out of the equation. The message of the first-century Church was focused on the person of Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit came to exalt Jesus and to make Him known. The apostle Paul wrote, "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God" (1 Corinthians 1:18, NIV).

The Spirit is calling the Church back to the basics—to the divinely mandated mission of the Church. The Early Church continued in the apostles' doctrine (discipleship), breaking of bread (fellowship), and the Lord added to the Church daily those that were being saved (evangelism) (Acts 2:42). The Spirit is calling the Church back to its original priorities. So much baggage can be added to church institutions that the Church's message becomes diluted and its priorities become weakened. The Spirit is calling the Church to the priority of living out Christ's gospel in the marketplace—bringing people to the cross of Jesus Christ.

1. What is the Holy Spirit saying to our Fellowship?

The Assemblies of God began as a Fellowship in 1914. Brothers and sisters touched by the Holy Spirit met together in Hot Springs, Arkansas, and linked together in a Fellowship. Their objective was to send missionaries around the world, to create a publishing arm that would report on the Pentecostal revival, insure a unity in sound biblical doctrine, and produce Pentecostal curriculum to develop Spirit-filled disciples. Those purposes have been maintained.

God raised up this Fellowship because the traditional denominations of the day would not respond to what the Holy Spirit was saying to the Church. The question for us today is: Will we hear the voice of the Spirit for these last days and be the church that the Lord can use to touch this generation? Or, will He have to raise up others because of our inability or unwillingness to be pliable, flexible, and responsive to the Spirit's voice?

The word to the Church as a whole can be personalized to us today. As we examine the principles, practices, and priorities of the first-century Church, the Spirit will speak to our Fellowship.

Principles

A spirit of true humility must be recaptured among us. It is easy to become dependent upon our resources, programs, and systems to try to fulfill the purposes of God. This is the history of most denominations. May it not be so for the Assemblies of God. We must make a fresh commitment to the fact that it is "'Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit' says the Lord Almighty," (Zechariah 4:6, NIV). We are still completely and totally dependent upon the Lord to build His Church. Humility of spirit demands that we acknowledge that all that we are and all we have are a result of what God has done.

Leadership is a popular subject today. We are grateful for the training that enables our men and women to be more effective in church leadership. But let us reaffirm that what our churches and communities need from us more than anything else is spiritual leadership. They need to know that those who lead the church are in tune with the Spirit, hear from the Lord, and personally respond to His promptings. The Lord has not called us to be lords over the church, but to serve the church. Jesus said in Matthew 23:11, "But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant" (NKJV). It is impossible for an insecure leader to be a servant leader. The Scriptures record that Jesus, knowing where He had come from and where He was going, took a towel and began to wash the disciples' feet at the Last Supper (John 13:3–5). May every spiritual leader in our Fellowship not seek the accolades and the approval of man, but be secure in what God has called each of us to be. Only then will we effectively serve the church and be God's instruments to lead the church in these last days.

Rather than trying to change the world, the New Testament Church concentrated on being the living representation of the kingdom of God on Earth. This was a church that loved and served people. The "one another" principle is found throughout the New Testament—believers loved one another, served one another, prayed for one another, ministered to one another, gave life to one another. Paul wrote in Ephesians 4 that, if God-given ministries will function as He ordained, the Body will be thoroughly equipped for ministry—the result being that the Church will be built up as people grow into spiritual maturity.

This Church believed that the gifts of the Spirit and supernatural workings were to be common among them. They refused to water down the Pentecostal message.

Let us understand that we can reach this generation most effectively through the preaching of Jesus and His saving work on the Cross, anointed and empowered by the Holy Spirit, with signs following. The postmodern world is hungry for the supernatural. Let a fresh hunger be created in the hearts of every pastor and spiritual leader to see the Spirit work in supernatural power in every local church and ministry associated with this Fellowship. The greatest revival around the world is a Spirit-filled, Spirit-led, supernatural movement.

Practices

This first-century Church practiced the guidance of the Holy Spirit in evangelism. They trusted the Lord to lead them to those who were spiritually hungry and ready to receive the message. We must help people in our churches to become sensitized to the Holy Spirit's desire to lead them daily to reach and touch people with the life and power of Jesus Christ.

Priorities

The first-century Church maintained priorities that helped them remain sensitive to what the Spirit was saying. The first-century Church did not stray from their mission. Today many local churches function in an identity crisis. Spiritual trends, programs, and methodologies come and go, but the divinely mandated priorities of the Church must be maintained. Acts 2:42 states that the Church continued in the apostles' doctrine, preaching and teaching of the Word—and prayer. They practiced lives of prayer. They lived in spiritual fellowship with one another, and they lived out the Kingdom in the world to such an extent that people were added to the church daily.

Tragically, the church has moved away from these first-century priorities. New Testament believers were not consumers, but producers. They did not just go to church; they were the church. Evangelism was not a program, but a lifestyle. They were not inward-focused. They were outward-focused.

One of Jesus' parables concerned wineskins (Luke 5:37,38). He taught that if new wine is poured into old wineskins, they will explode. But if all the residue is removed from the old wineskin, it becomes pliable again. Then when new wine is placed in it, it can stretch and receive the new wine. The Lord is speaking to His Church today to become pliable and responsive to the Holy Spirit's leading. Methods that were effective 20 years ago may not be today. We must evaluate every program and ministry based upon its fruitfulness. We must become flexible and receptive, so we can both hear and obey what the Spirit is saying to the Church. As an outflow of the priorities in Acts 6, the Word of God spread and the numbers of disciples were multiplied.

2. What is the Spirit saying to your church/ministry?

God has a specific plan for every church and ministry.

The local church is the expression of God's redemptive purposes in this world. Every church should be a prophetic voice in its community. Every church should equip and develop God's people for works of service, so that the Kingdom can be built up and the gifts of ministry can be released—not only to affect the church but also its community and the world.

The message of the church should be Christ-centered, Jesus must be exalted. Every ministry of the church should continually evaluate its effectiveness based on whether the Kingdom is being expanded—and the Lord is adding to the church.

When the Lord spoke to the seven churches in Revelation, in each case there was an assessment—an evaluation—of that church's condition. Are we willing to honestly evaluate the effectiveness of our church and ministry? Unless we understand where we are, it is difficult to know where we should go. And so the question for every church/ministry must be: Where are we? What needs to be changed?

We need to ask God to forgive us for our failures. When we recognize any place of ineffectiveness in evangelism, worship, or discipleship, we must be willing to humble ourselves and repent. We must pray, "Lord, forgive our failure to reach the lost in our community. Lord, forgive our failure to worship You in spirit and in truth. Forgive our failure to disciple people to spiritual maturity. Lord, forgive us for allowing our church to be ignored in our community."

The third thing the Spirit spoke to each church in Revelation was a word of direction. No church has a future unless its dreams are bigger than its memories. May God help us to seek Him until we capture a vision that will propel us into the days ahead. God give us pastoral leaders who can clearly articulate to our congregations the unique vision God has given for each church and ministry. A vision cannot be birthed from a book. We can learn much from other people and their ministries, but God has a unique plan for every church and ministry. Our responsibility is to find what God is saying to each of us specifically.

The last thing said to each of the seven churches is, "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches" (Revelation 2:29, NKJV). Each of us will choose whether or not we are willing to hear. The Spiritual Life Committee is convinced that the Spirit is speaking to the leadership of the Church today. The question for each of us personally and specifically is: Are we open to hear what the Spirit is saying to us? Are we willing to evaluate where we are, repent of where we have failed, and obey the Spirit's marching orders for our future? Each of us must make that choice

3. What is God saying to you personally?

No church or ministry ever grows or is sustained beyond its leadership. Each of us must decide if we will grow in our character, in our relationships, and in our effectiveness. Does our ministry demonstrate soundness of speech, faith, and doctrine?

Character

No one person can grow beyond his or her personal walk with the Lord. We must each do some soul-searching concerning our relationship with Jesus. We must live what we preach and teach. We must ask ourselves: Am I a person of integrity? Do I maintain spiritual disciplines of prayer and personal devotion in the Word? Am I accountable in my life to others?

Relationships

Am I becoming more effective in my relationship skills? Do I recognize my need for others in ministry? Am I investing in someone else's life and ministry? Do I keep short accounts of hurts and injustices?

Effectiveness

Am I continuing to learn and grow in ministry skills? Am I resourcing my life? Am I reaching toward my potential in Christ? Am I willing to change?

Soundness

In Paul's admonition to Timothy and Titus, he used the Greek word translated "sound," from which the English word "hygiene" is derived, indicating being whole and healthy. He refers to "sound words" (2 Timothy 1:13, KJV), "sound doctrine" (Titus 2:1, KJV), "sound in faith" (Titus 2:2, KJV), and "sound speech" (Titus 2:8, KJV). Paul also said that believers must have a "sound mind" (2 Timothy 1:7, KJV), meaning one that is prudent and self-controlled. Does our ministry demonstrate soundness in our preaching and in our communication? Is there consistency in our ministry?

These are questions each of us must prayerfully evaluate. Every leader has a responsibility to mentor a new generation of leaders in this Fellowship. All of us are where we are today because someone believed in us. Someone invested in us and made an impact on our lives. God help us to grasp our responsibility to others.

The revelation of Jesus to John on the island of Patmos was an incredible moment. John was the last living apostle. He had walked with Jesus. He had lived with Jesus. He had served the Lord faithfully. He could have spent the final days of his life regretting all he could or should have done. He could have become angry and bitter over the injustices he had faced or his circumstances on Patmos. But John made a choice.

He said, "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day." He chose to worship and praise God in spite of his past failures and present circumstances. In that atmosphere, Jesus appeared to him.

Our prayer, as we conclude this Spiritual Life Report today, is that we will each respond to God with gratitude for all He has done to bring us to where we are. In spite of our faults, failures, and inadequacies, God has been faithful to us. He is worthy of all praise, honor, and glory. He is worthy to be worshipped. And as we worship Him, may we today catch a fresh glimpse—a fresh revelation—of who He is.

He comes to speak to His Church in these days to reveal where we are, to encourage us, to urge us to repent of our sins, and to give us our marching orders for the future.

We are asking every pastor, every ministry leader, every lay leader in this place to turn to Him today and seek Him "in the Spirit." The risen and glorified Son of God seated at the right hand of the Father has come to reveal himself to us—to prepare us for these last days of harvest. If you can see Jesus today, you will be changed. If you can see Jesus today, you will know that the future is secured. If you can see Jesus today, you will know that He has come to touch you, to change you, and to make you the leader you need to be. "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches" (Revelation 2:29, NKJV).

Proposed Amendments to the General Council Constitution and Bylaws

Larry Griswold, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, called attention to the 84-page booklet that has been mailed to all ministers containing proposed revisions to the General Council Constitution and Bylaws which were a result of recommendations from the Vision for Transformation Committee. These revisions were approved by the General Presbytery in its 2004 session and have been processed for presentation to the General Council by the Resolutions Committee.

He then called attention to a 4-page summary that had been prepared by the Resolutions Committee in an effort to make the presentation of the revisions to the Constitution and Bylaws more understandable and easier to handle by the General Council.

He indicated that the General Presbytery in session this week had taken an action to rescind its approval and recommendation of the following items contained in the summary and in the proposed revisions booklet, and further that body also took an action that consideration on these items be deferred:

Item #3. Defining Board of Administration

Item #5. The Executive Presbytery

tem #7. The General Presbytery—Duties

tem #13. Doctrines and Practices Disapproved—Legalism

tem #17. Policy Manual becomes Operations Manual

He further called attention to the fact that Item 14 on the summary had been dealt with earlier by this body when action was taken on Resolution 19 and that Item 16 had also been dealt with by the adoption of Resolution 20 and Resolution 21.

Summary Item 15. Organizational Manual

Larry Griswold presented Item 15 from the summary sheet as follows:

Page 60, lines 40-63—A new Article XII. The General Council of the Assemblies of God Organizational Manual is defined.

National Ministries of the General Council of the Assemblies of God enfolds (by deletion from the Bylaws) the details of Spiritual Life, Office of Public Relations, The Pentecostal Evangel. Enrichment, Commission on Ethnicity, Commission on Evangelism, and the Commission on Discipleship from the General Superintendent's Office (pages 54-60) and the Division of Church Ministries, Division of Christian Education, Commission on Higher Education, Media Ministries, and the Division of Publication (pages 73-77) into the newly defined Organizational Manual, prepared by the Executive Presbytery, and approved by the General Presbytery.

A motion prevailed to adopt proposed Article XI. National Ministries of The General Council of the Assemblies of God (page 54 of the proposed amendment booklet) and Article XII. The General Council of the Assemblies of God Organizational Manual (page 60 of the proposed amendment booklet) as a substitute for present Bylaws, Article XI. General Superintendent's Office, Article XII. Directors, Commissioners, Managers, Leaders, and Other Designations, Article XVI. Division of Church Ministries, Article XVII. committee be requested to report the findings of this study to the 2007 General Council to convene in Indianapolis, Indiana, with possible recommendations as to how this reorganizational plan may need to be modified to give greater priority and emphasis to discipleship and Christian education in our Fellowship.

Resolution 5. Humanity of the Lord Jesus Christ

Larry Griswold presented Resolution 5 and moved its adoption. The motion to adopt was lost. Resolution 5 as presented follows:

- WHEREAS, Many ministers in proclaiming the deity and sinlessness of our Lord Jesus Christ have been teaching that He has no genetic link to any other human, not even his own mother; and
- WHEREAS. This assertion that the Holy Spirit created the human body of our Lord in the womb of the Virgin Mary without using one of her ovary eggs denies that He has human ancestry; and
- WHEREAS, This would mean that Jesus would not have been a literal, physical descendant of Abraham and therefore not an actual Jew; and
- WHEREAS, This would make Mary a surrogate mother and Jesus a surrogate son; and
- WHEREAS, To be a legitimate son means to be a genetic descendant; and
- WHEREAS, Our Lord Jesus Christ is the Son of Man and therefore is literally descended from man; and
- WHEREAS, Numerous Old Testament prophecies plainly state that Messiah was to genetically descend from definite, named, human forebears according to the flesh; and
- WHEREAS, The New Testament plainly teaches that the Lord Jesus Christ has a literal, genetic human lineage through His mother, all the way back to Adam; and
- WHEREAS, Doubt is being cast on all this Scripture because of tradition and private interpretations of biblical passages pertaining to human sinfulness; and
- WHEREAS, Church doctrine should rest solidly on Scripture because the very atonement of the Cross depends upon biblical inerrancy; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Statement of Fundamental Truths in the constitution be amended by the addition of a section to be titled The Humanity of the Lord Jesus Christ, to read as follows:

The Lord Jesus Christ is the Son of Man. The Scriptures declare:

- His own statements that He is the Son of Man (John 8:28; John 9:35-38; Matthew 16:15-18).
- b. His human genealogy back to Adam (Luke 3:23-37).
- c. His promise that He would be the woman's seed (Genesis 3:15).
- d. His being conceived by the virgin (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:31,35).
- e. His being made of a woman, made under the law (Galatians 4:4).
- f. His being the one seed of Abraham that would bless all nations (Galatians 3:16).
- g. His being made of the seed of David according to the flesh (Romans 1:3).
- h. His being the fruit of David's loins (Acts 2:30).
- i. His being the root and the offspring of David (Revelation 22:16).
- j. His coming from Israel concerning the flesh (Romans 9:4,5).
  - k. His having sprung from the tribe of Judah (Hebrews 7:14).
- 1. His identifying himself as a Jew (John 4:22).
- m. His being the Lion of the tribe of Judah (Revelation 5:5).
  - n. His being the one mediator, the man Christ Jesus (1 Timothy 2:5).
  - o. His imminent return as the Son of Man (Matthew 26:64).
  - p. His future millennial reign upon the throne of His father David (Luke 1:32).

The Son of God is the Son of Man, precisely and only, because He is the actual, physical, biological descendant of human forebears, according to the flesh. It is a transgression of the doctrine of Christ to say that the Messiah was born without a real genetic connection to this scriptural human ancestry. Therefore, to say that the human body of Jesus was formed in the womb without using an ovary egg of his virgin mother is a denial that the Lord Jesus Christ is the seed of the woman, the seed of Abraham, the fruit of David's loins, or the Son of Man; and a displacement of the truth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh.

At the moment man fell, the Lord Jesus Christ took upon himself the guilt of Adam's legal succession and the death penalty of sin for all humanity to come: "...and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all" (Isaiah 53;6). "For He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin..." (2 Corinthians 5:21); for He is "...the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world" (Revelation 13:8).

When the fullness of the time was come, the eternal Son of God came forth to become the Son of Man, made of Mary's ovary egg, the virgin woman's seed, thus becoming a direct, literal, genetic descendant of King David and of Abraham, according to the flesh and fulfilling messianic prophecy (Galatians 4:4; Genesis 3:15; Romans 1:3; Matthew 1:1).

Every child conceived comes under the positional guilt of Adams' transgression, for "...by one man's disobedience many were made sinners" (Romans 5:19); and as David said, "...in sin did my mother conceive me" (Psalm 51:5). However, each one's guilt is covered by the blood of the Lamb of God until he reaches accountability and "...is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed" (James 1:14). Some temptations, like fear and selfishness, begin in the womb and we are "...shapen in iniquity..." (Psalm 51:5).

However, as God is love, and as Christ is God in the flesh, fully God and fully man, He is love personified; and as perfect love casts out all fear and is the fulfillment of the law, He alone fully kept the whole law and lived a sinless life, though tempted in all points as we are. At His substitutionary death on the cross, He was judged righteous and was accepted by the Father as the all-sufficient propitation for the sins of the whole world; and He was declared to be the Son of God by His resurrection from the dead; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this amendment be numbered as General Council Constitution, Article V, paragraph 4, and entitled: 4. The Humanity of the Lord Jesus Christ; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the remaining paragraph be renumbered accordingly.

THE HUMANITY OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST Recommendation from Commission on Doctrinal Purity

The Commission on Doctrinal Purity has examined the proposed resolution entitled The Humanity of the Lord Jesus Christ submitted by Robert W. Lyle of Wellsboro, Pennsylvania.

The commission is very appreciative of the fact that Brother Lyle has done extensive study on the humanity of Jesus Christ, has manifested a genuine interest in and concern for the doctrines of the Assemblies of God, and has made the fruit of his research available to the Commission on Doctrinal Purity. The commission concurs with Brother Lyle that the full humanity of our Lord must be safeguarded.

However, the commission noted that the Statement of Fundamental Truths affirms the humanity of our Lord in Statement 2, "The One True God," and specifically affirms the virgin birth in Statement 3, "The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ." These affirmations, while not extensive, are nonetheless consistent with the historic creeds of the Christian church and appear to be adequate for present needs

Therefore, the Commission on Doctrinal Purity respectfully recommends that no change be made at this time in Statements 2 and 3.

Adjournment

A motion prevailed to adjourn the business meeting of the 51st General Council at 4:10 p.m., Thursday, August 4, 2005.

THURSDAY EVENING-AUGUST 4

The Thursday evening service of the 51st General Council began at 7 in the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colorado, with a missionary parade led by L. John Bueno, riding in a rickshaw, followed by missionaries marching into the auditorium, bearing flags and attire from the nations in which they serve. During the parade, J. Daniel Smith directed the choir and orchestra from Bethesda Community Church, Fort Worth, Texas, which provided music for the missionary parade. Prayer for the service was offered by Loren Triplett, former executive director of Assemblies of God World Missions.

C. Dan Betzer, executive presbyter from the Southeast Area, made an appeal in behalf of the Senders Fund offering. This fund is to help missionary candidates by cutting the itineration time. He urged everyone to generously support this fund. The offertory was provided by the Bethesda Community Church, Fort Worth, Texas, choir. Special music for the service was also provided by a 168-person choir made up of men and women preparing to head to 55 countries for missionary service.

The speaker for the service was Lazarus M. Chakwera, president of the Malawi Assemblies of God. He expressed thanks to America for sending full-gospel missionaries to Africa. Even though the continent now receives missionaries from the rest of the world, the greatest partners remain U.S. Assemblies of God missionaries. "The church's exponential growth in Africa is in many ways a reflection of the tireless efforts and seed-sowing ministries of missionaries of yesteryear." He stated that there is a realization that the African church, too, has a role to play in God's worldwide missions. "The new reality is that missions has become from all nations to all nations."

Following the evening message a first-ever missionary commissioning service was held with General Superintendent Thomas E. Trask commissioning new candidates heading to the mission field.

FRIDAY MORNING-AUGUST 5

George O. Wood served as chairman for this service.

Scripture for the service was read by Elizabeth (Beth) Grant, Springfield, Missouri. She also offered prayer for the service. Worship was led by John Lawson, Radiant Church, Colorado Springs, Colorado. The offering was received by Charles E. Hackett.

In memory of those ministers who have passed away since the last meeting of the General Council a video scroll was presented containing 803 names. During the playing of the memorial scroll, music was provided by the Peacemakers Quartet, Paul and Marjorie Ferrin, Gina Lugo and Johnny Ferrante, and Nicholas Jonas. Following the presentation of the scroll Thomas E. Trask, general superintendent, introduced C. Dan Betzer, executive presbyter from the Southeast Area and pastor of First Assembly of God, Fort Myers, Florida, the speaker for the service. Following his message, Communion was observed. General Superintendent Thomas E. Trask presided during the Communion service. He was assisted by members of the Executive Presbytery and General Presbytery.

FRIDAY EVENING-AUGUST 5

Celebration of Ethnicity

Friday afternoon the General Council honored the ethnic diversity within the Fellowship with a Celebration of Ethnicity service in two locations from 2 to 4:30 p.m. A multilingual celebration was held in the Colorado Convention Center and at the same time a bilingual Hispanic celebration was held at the Adam's Mark Plaza Ballroom. The Celebration of Ethnicity was organized by the Commission on Ethnicity and U.S. Intercultural Ministries. The services featured video clips from a number of ethnic/language districts and fellowships, full-dress Native Americans, parades of different language/ethnic groups, skits by the Deaf Culture Fellowship, singing and dancing by the Filipino, Fijian, and Tongan Fellowships, Russian singers, Chinese quartet and dancers, and a number of other presentations.

FRIDAY EVENING-AUGUST 5

The concluding service of the 2005 General Council began at 7 with a joint rally of adults and youth in the Pepsi Center. Prior to the service 30 minutes of preservice music was provided by Fine Arts participants. Worship for the service was led by Jeff Deyo and his band consisting of Charlie Goddard on guitar, Jeremy McCoy on bass, Fred Williams on keyboard, and Nate Winters on drums. Additional music for the service was provided by a Fine Arts choir directed by Tom Matrone, minister of music at Central Assembly of God, Springfield, Missouri, and a Fine Arts orchestra, directed by Michael Kolstad, professor at Evangel University, Springfield, Missouri. General Superintendent Thomas Trask served as chairman for the service and introduced the guest speaker. The offering was received by Charles T. Crabtree, assistant general superintendent.

The speaker for the evening was Bryan Jarrett, pastor of First Assembly of God, Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Following his challenging message, thousands of young people streamed forward for an extended time of commitment to Jesus Christ.

Constitutional Declaration

WE BELIEVE:

That God's purpose concerning man is (1) to seek and to save that which is lost, (2) to be worshiped by man, and (3) to build a body of believers in the image of His Son.

That these believers, saved and called out of the world, constitute the Body or Church of Jesus Christ built and established upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone.

That the members of the Body, the Church (ecclesia) of Jesus Christ, are enjoined to assemble themselves for worship, fellowship, counsel, and instruction in the Word of God, the work of the ministry, and for the exercise of those spiritual gifts and offices provided for New Testament church order.

That it is evident the early apostolic churches came together in fellowship as a representative body of saved, Spirit-filled believers who ordained and sent out evangelists and missionaries, and under the supervision of the Holy Spirit set over the church pastors and teachers.

That the priority reason-for-being of the Assemblies of God is to be an agency of God for evangelizing the world, to be a corporate body in which man may worship God, and to be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son.

That the Assemblies of God exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason-for-being in the New Testament apostolic pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit, which enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs, adding a necessary dimension to worshipful relationship with God, and enabling them to respond to the full working of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit and gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ.

That we are a cooperative fellowship of Pentecostal, Spirit-baptized saints from local Pentecostal assemblies of like precious faith throughout the United States to be known as The General Council of the Assemblies of God whose purpose is neither to usurp authority over the various local assemblies, nor to deprive them of their scriptural and local rights and privileges; but to recognize and promote scriptural methods and order for worship, unity, fellowship, work, and business for God; and to disapprove unscriptural methods, doctrines, and conduct, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, "till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13).

ARTICLE I. NAME

The corporate name is The General Council of The Assemblies of God, which refers to the legal entity.

The term General Council refers to sessions of the corporation.

The term Assemblies of God refers to the entire constituency.

ARTICLE II. NATURE

The General Council of the Assemblies of God is a cooperative fellowship based upon mutual agreements voluntarily entered into by its membership.

ARTICLE III. PREROGATIVES

The prerogatives of The General Council of the Assemblies of God shall be:

- a. To encourage and promote the evangelization of the world.
- b. To encourage and promote the worship of God.
- To encourage and promote the edification of believers
- d. To provide a basis of fellowship among Christians of like precious faith
- e. To respond to human need with ministries of compassion.
- f. To establish and maintain such departments and institutions as may be necessary for the propagation of the gospel and the work of this Pentecostal fellowship.
- g. To approve scriptural teachings and practices, and to disapprove unscriptural teachings and practices. A list of disapproved doctrines and practices is set forth in Articles IX and X of the Bylaws.
- h. To have the right to own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of such property as may be needed for the prosecution of its work.

ARTICLE IV. PRINCIPLES FOR FELLOWSHIP

The Assemblies of God shall represent, as nearly as possible, the body of Christ as described in the New Testament. It shall recognize the principles inherent in the Body as also inherent in this Fellowship, particularly the principles of unity, cooperation, and equality. It recognizes that these principles will enable it to achieve its priority reason-for-being as an agency of God for evangelizing the world, as a corporate body in which man may worship God, and as a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son.

ARTICLE V. STATEMENT OF FUNDAMENTAL TRUTHS

The Bible is our all-sufficient rule for faith and practice. This Statement of Fundamental Truths is intended simply as a basis of fellowship among us (i.e., that we all speak the same thing, 1 Corinthians 1:10; Acts 2:42). The phraseology employed in this statement is not inspired or contended for, but the truth set forth is held to be essential to a full-gospel ministry. No claim is made that it contains all biblical truth, only that it covers our need as to these fundamental doctrines.

1. The Scriptures Inspired

The Scriptures, both the Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct (2 Timothy 3:15-17; 1 Thessalonians 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21).

2. The One True God

The one true God has revealed himself as the eternally self-existent "I AM," the Creator of heaven and earth and the Redeemer of mankind. He has further revealed himself as embodying the principles of relationship and association as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Deuteronomy 6:4; Isaiah 43:10,11; Matthew 28:19; Luke 3:22).

The Adorable Godhead

(a) Terms Defined

The terms trinity and persons, as related to the godhead, while not found in the Scriptures, are words in harmony with Scripture, whereby we may convey to others our immediate understanding of the doctrine of Christ respecting the Being of God, as distinguished from "gods many and lords many." We therefore may speak with propriety of the Lord our God, who is One Lord, as a Trinity or as one Being of three persons, and still be absolutely scriptural (examples, Matthew 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14: John 14:16.17).

(b) Distinction and Relationship in the Godhead

Christ taught a distinction of persons in the godhead which He expressed in specific terms of relationship, as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, but that this distinction and relationship, as to its mode is inscrutable and incomprehensible, because unexplained (Luke 1:35; 1 Corinthians 1:24; Matthew 11:25-27; 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; 1 John 1:3,4).

(c) Unity of the One Being of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

Accordingly, therefore, there is that in the Father which constitutes Him the Father and not the Son; there is that in the Son which constitutes Him the Son and not the Father; and there is that in the Holy Spirit which constitutes Him the Holy Spirit and not either the Father or the Son. Wherefore, the Father is the Begetter; the Son is the Begotten; and the Holy Spirit is the One proceeding from the Father and the Son. Therefore, because these three persons in the godhead are in a state of unity, there is but one Lord God Almighty and His name one (John 1:18; 15:26; 17:11,21; Zechariah 14:9).

(d) Identity and Cooperation in the Godhead

The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are never identical as to person; nor confused as to relation; nor divided in respect to the godhead; nor opposed as to cooperation. The Son is in the Father and the Father is in the Son as to relationship. The Son is with the Eather and the Father is with the Son, as to fellowship. The Father is not from the Son, but the Son is from the Father, as to authority. The Holy Spirit is from the Father and the Son proceeding, as to nature, relationship, cooperation, and authority. Hence, no person in the godhead either exists or works separately or independently of the others (John 5:17-30,32,37; 8:17.18).

(e) The Title, Lord Jesus Christ

The appellation Lord Jesus Christ, is a proper name. It is never applied in the New Testament either to the Father or to the Holy Spirit. It therefore belongs exclusively to the Son of God (Romans 1:1-3,7; 2 John 3).

(f) The Lord Jesus Christ, God With Us

The Lord Jesus Christ, as to His divine and eternal nature, is the proper and only Begotten of the Father, but as to His human nature, He is the proper Son of Man. He is, therefore, acknowledged to be both God and man; who because He is God and man, is "Immanuel," God with us (Matthew 1:23; 1 John 4:2,10,14; Revelation 1:13,17).

(g) The Title, Son of God

Since the name Immanuel embraces both God and man, in the one person, our Lord Jesus Christ, it follows that the title Son of God describes His proper deity, and the title Son of Man, His proper humanity. Therefore, the title Son of God belongs to the order of eternity, and the title Son of Man to the order of time (Matthew 1:21-23; 2 John 3; 1 John 3:8; Hebrews 7:3; 1:1-13).

(h) Transgression of the Doctrine of Christ

Wherefore, it is a transgression of the doctrine of Christ to say that Jesus Christ derived the title Son of God solely from the fact of the Incarnation, or because of His relation to the economy of redemption. Therefore, to deny that the Father is a real and eternal Father, and that the Son is a real and eternal Son, is a denial of the distinction and relationship in the Being of God; a denial of the Father and the Son; and a displacement of the truth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh (2 John 9; John 1:1,2,14,18,29,49; 1 John 2:22,23; 4:1-5; Hebrews 12:2).

(i) Exaltation of Jesus Christ as Lord

The Son of God, our Lord Jesus Christ, having by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, angels and principalities and powers having been made subject unto Him. And having been made both Lord and Christ, He sent the Holy Spirit that we, in the name of Jesus, might bow our knees and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father until the end, when the Son shall become subject to the Father that God may be all in all (Hebrews 1:3; 1 Peter 3:22; Acts 2:32-36; Romans 14:11; 1 Corinthians 15:24-28).

(j) Equal Honor to the Father and to the Son

Wherefore, since the Father has delivered all judgment unto the Son, it is not only the express duty of all in heaven and on earth to bow the knee, but it is an unspeakable joy in the Holy Spirit to ascribe unto the Son all the attributes of deity, and to give Him all the honor and the glory contained in all the names and titles of the godhead except those which express relationship (see paragraphs b, c, and d), and thus honor the Son even as we honor the Father (John 5:22,23; 1 Peter 1:8; Revelation 5:6-14; Philippians 2:8,9; Revelation 7:9,10; 4:8-11).

3. The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ

The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God. The Scriptures declare:

- a. His virgin birth (Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:31,35).
- b. His sinless life (Hebrews 7:26; 1 Peter 2:22).

- His miracles (Acts 2:22: 10:38).
- d. His substitutionary work on the cross (1 Corinthians 15:3; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
- e. His bodily resurrection from the dead (Matthew 28:6; Luke 24:39; 1 Corinthians 15:4).
- f. His exaltation to the right hand of God (Acts 1:9,11; 2:33; Philippians 2:9-11; Hebrews 1:3).

4. The Fall of Man

Man was created good and upright; for God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." However, man by voluntary transgression fell and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death, which is separation from God (Genesis 1:26,27; 2:17; 3:6; Romans 5:12-19).

5. The Salvation of Man

Man's only hope of redemption is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ the Son of God

- a. Conditions to Salvation. Salvation is received through repentance toward God and faith toward the Lord Jesus Christ. By the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, being justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God according to the hope of eternal life (Luke 24:47; John 3:3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 2:8; Titus 2:11; 3:5-7).
- b. The Evidences of Salvation. The inward evidence of salvation is the direct witness of the Spirit (Romans 8:16). The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness (Ephesians 4:24; Titus 2:12).

6. The Ordinances of the Church

- a. Baptism in Water. The ordinance of baptism by immersion is commanded in the Scriptures. All who repent and believe on Christ as Savior and Lord are to be baptized. Thus they declare to the world that they have died with Christ and that they also have been raised with Him to walk in newness of life (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 10:47,48; Romans 6:4).
- b. Holy Communion. The Lord's Supper, consisting of the elements—bread and the fruit of the vine—is the symbol expressing our sharing the divine nature of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Peter 1:4); a memorial of His suffering and death (1 Corinthians 11:26); and a prophecy of His second coming (1 Corinthians 11:26); and is enjoined on all believers "till He come!"

7. The Baptism in the Holy Spirit

All believers are entitled to and should ardently expect and earnestly seek the promise of the Father, the baptism in the Holy Spirit and fire, according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. This was the normal experience of all in the early Christian church. With it comes the enduement of power for life and service, the bestowment of the gifts and their uses in the work of the ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4,8; 1 Corinthians 12:1-31). This experience is distinct from and subsequent to the experience of the new birth (Acts 8:12-17; 10:44-46; 11:14-16; 15:7-9). With the baptism in the Holy Spirit come such experiences as an overflowing fullness of the Spirit (John 7:37-39; Acts 4:8), a deepend reverence for God (Acts 2:43; Hebrews 12:28), an intensified consecration to God and dedication to His work (Acts 2:42), and a more active love for Christ, for His Word, and for the lost (Mark 16:20).

8. The Initial Physical Evidence of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

The baptism of believers in the Holy Spirit is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts 2:4). The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gift of tongues (1 Corinthians 12:4-10,28), but different in purpose and use.

9. Sanctification

Sanctification is an act of separation from that which is evil, and of dedication unto God (Romans 12:1,2; 1 Thessalonians 5:23; Hebrews 13:12). Scriptures teach a life of "holiness without which no man shall see the Lord" (Hebrews 12:14). By the power of the Holy Spirit we are able to obey the command: "Be ye holy, for I am holy" (1 Peter 1:15,16).

Sanctification is realized in the believer by recognizing his identification with Christ in His death and resurrection, and by faith reckoning daily upon the fact of that union, and by offering every faculty continually to the dominion of the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1-11,13; 8:1,2,13; Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:12,13; 1 Peter 1:5).

10. The Church and Its Mission

The Church is the body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfillment of her Great Commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven (Ephesians 1:22,23; 2:22; Hebrews 12:23).

Since God's purpose concerning man is to seek and to save that which is lost, to be worshiped by man, and to build a body of believers in the image of His Son, the priority reason-for-being of the Assemblies of God as part of the Church is:

- To be an agency of God for evangelizing the world (Acts 1:8; Matthew 28:19,20; Mark 16:15,16).
- To be a corporate body in which man may worship God (1 Corinthians 12:13).
- c. To be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11-16; 1 Corinthians 12:28; 14:12).

The Assemblies of God exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason-for-being in the New Testament apostolic pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit. This experience:

- a. Enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs (Mark 16:15-20; Acts 4:29-31; Hebrews 2:3,4).
- Adds a necessary dimension to a worshipful relationship with God (1 Corinthians 2:10-16; 1 Corinthians 12-14).

c. Enables them to respond to the full working of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit and gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ (Galatians 5:22-26; 1 Corinthians 14:12; Ephesians 4:11,12; 1 Corinthians 12:28; Colossians 1:29).

11. The Ministry

A divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for the threefold purpose of leading the Church in: (1) evangelization of the world (Mark 16:15-20), (2) worship of God (John 4:23,24), and (3) building a Body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11,16).

12. Divine Healing

Divine healing is an integral part of the gospel. Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the Atonement, and is the privilege of all believers (Isaiah 53:4,5; Matthew 8:16,17; James 5:14-16).

13. The Blessed Hope

The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord is the imminent and blessed hope of the Church (1 Thessalonians 4:16,17; Romans 8:23; Titus 2:13; 1 Corinthians 15:51.52).

14. The Millennial Reign of Christ

The second coming of Christ includes the rapture of the saints, which is our blessed hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with His saints to reign on the earth for one thousand years (Zechariah 14:5; Matthew 24:27,30; Revelation 1:7; 19:11-14; 20:1-6). This millennial reign will bring the salvation of national Israel (Ezekiel 37:21,22; Zephaniah 3:19,20; Romans 11:26,27) and the establishment of universal peace (Isaiah 11:6-9; Psalm 72:3-8; Micah 4:3,4).

15. The Final Judgment

There will be a final judgment in which the wicked dead will be raised and judged according to their works. Whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life, together with the devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, will be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death (Matthew 25:46; Mark 9:43-48; Revelation 19:20: 20:11-15: 21:8).

16. The New Heavens and the New Earth

"We, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (2 Peter 3:13; Revelation 21,22).

A resolution passed by a district council in session shall always be deemed appropriate.

    - (4) The effect the establishment of the proposed new district will have on other districts.

Section 2. Officers

Each district council shall elect a superintendent, together with such other officers as may be deemed advisable by the district membership, such as, assistant superintendent, secretary-treasurer, and presbyters. The fellowship shall exist for the purpose of exchanging information facilitating evangelism, and establishing churches. Until such time as it is qualified to form a district, it shall be part of the geographic or language district. Leadership for fellowship groups shall be approved by the Executive Presbytery.

- c. Cooperative relationship. Both the ethnic/language district and the geographical district shall seek to promote a spirit of fellowship and cooperation. The ethnic/language district officers and the geographical district officers should inform or consult with each other concerning the opening of new language works or institutions of any kind, in a given area. It is strongly recommended that the ethnic/language district and the geographical district appoint representatives(s) to serve with their respective presbyteries to provide and encourage cooperative strategies and relationships. The language churches, whether members of a geographical or ethnic/language district, are encouraged to unite where possible, in fellowship activities.
- d. Sponsorship and affiliation of an ethnic/language group. Should an English-speaking church desire to initiate sponsorship of an ethnic/language group, it shall consult with its district officials for counsel and guidance. The geographical district should inform or consult with language district officers concerning the beginning of an ethnic/language group within churches belonging to the geographical district. The sponsoring church may provide facilities and support to such a work through its district U.S. missions department. Such an effort may be initiated with the objective in mind that it will develop into an Assemblies of God church. When such a church reaches as many as 20 adult members, it may then seek affiliation with a district of its choice following prescribed guidelines as outlined in these Bylaws.

e. Church transfer procedure. When a church desires to transfer from an ethnic/language district to the geographical district in which it is located or from a geographical district to an ethnic/language district, a church business meeting shall be called and the minutes of said meeting shall reflect the action authorized by the congregation. This action shall be submitted to the officers of the ethnic/language district and the geographical district. If either district has objections, the church shall have the right of appeal to the Executive Presbytery of The General Council of the Assemblies of God, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution (Article XI).

ARTICLE VI. ASSEMBLIES

Section 1. Procedure for Affiliation

It shall be the responsibility of the district presbytery to determine when an assembly has reached a state of growth, stability, and maturity qualifying it for affiliation with The General Council of the Assemblies of God. Qualifications shall include a minimum active voting membership of 20 persons. The assembly shall have matured to a point where a sufficient number of qualified persons are available for the offices called for in its constitution and bylaws.

The procedure for affiliation shall be:

- a. A church desiring affiliation shall forward its request to the office of the district in which it is located. The district council shall provide an approved application form and procedural instructions.

- b. Fellowship Partners Offering. It is recommended that each church send to the General Council at least one offering for each calendar year toward the support of the administrative offices of the General Council. This offering shall be called Fellowship Partners offering, and shall be included with the Annual Church Ministries Report. It is suggested that each church's minimal offering be based upon its average Sunday morning attendance. A church averaging less than 50 is asked to send $25 for the year; less than 100 but more than 50, $50; less than 250 but more than 100, $100; less than 500 but more than 250, $250; less than 1,000 but more than 500, $500; less than 2,000 but more than 1,000, $1,000; over 2,000, $2,000.

c. Assemblies of God Total Giving

- (1) Participation. In order to support and develop the work and ministries of the Assemblies of God at home and abroad, all its churches are encouraged to send offerings at regular intervals.
- (2) Combined report. A combined report of all offerings that are designated for departments shall be given under the caption of Assemblies of God Total Giving. The intent is to provide recognition for contributions to all ministries of The General Council of the Assemblies of God, to place each appeal and ministry on an equal basis, and to lend encouragement to churches and individual contributors to determine the appeal to which they will respond under the leading of the Spirit.
- (3) Credit. Assemblies of God Total Giving recognition shall provide credit to Assemblies of God churches for contributions to the Fellowship Partners plan for support of the General Council; the Assemblies of God World Missions, Assemblies of God U.S. Missions, Benevolences Ministries, Christian Higher Education (including educational institutions), Church Ministries (including men's, women's, music, youth, and senior adults), General Administration (including executive and Spiritual Life offices), other General Council, regional, and district-sponsored or approved projects. Contributions from districts other than where a district-approved project is located can be granted Assemblies of God Total Giving credit only if the district where the contribution originates gives its approval and if the contribution is channeled through that district or the national Headquarters. It is expected that the national division or department related to a given project will be notified of approved projects. It is also understood that no district or region may receive Assemblies of God Total Giving credit for projects specifically disapproved by the General Council.

Section 3. Safeguarding the Assemblies

- a. Pastors and leaders of assemblies should make proper investigation of persons who seek to gain entrance to teach, minister, or pastor. Use of the platform should be denied until spiritual integrity and reliability have been determined. It is recommended that Assemblies of God churches use Assemblies of God ministers since the use of non-Assemblies of God ministers may bring confusion and problems detrimental to the Fellowship.
- b. No minister dismissed by the Assemblies of God may be allowed to pastor or have ministry in an Assemblies of God church. Pastors and district officials should maintain an exchange of information regarding dismissed ministers known to be seeking ministry in our assemblies.

Section 4. Relationships Between Churches, District Councils, and the General Council

- a. Nature. General Council affiliated churches are deemed to be sovereign, autonomous, self-governing, and self-determining bodies which have, by their sovereign, self-determining action in making application for and receiving recognition as a General Council affiliated church, entered into an agreement with the Fellowship to be amenable to the General Council and district council in matters of doctrine and conduct. (See Constitution, Article XI, Section 1, paragraph d.)
- b. Relationships. Cooperative fellowship describes both the relationship that exists between local churches and their relationships with the district councils and the General Council.
- c. Organizational assistance. The services of both the General Council and district council are available to assist the General Council affiliated church in dealing with any of its problems, either internal or external, when requested by the pastor or a majority of the official board of the church or a petition signed by 20 percent of the voting members.
- d. Preservation of affiliation. In the event the termination of affiliation with The General Council of the Assemblies of God is under consideration by an affiliated assembly, the pastor or board shall invite the district officers to participate in a specially called business meeting for the express purpose of giving the district officers the opportunity to present the case for continued General Council affiliation. Final disposition of the matter may then proceed in accordance with the constitution and bylaws of the local church.

Section 5. Guidelines for Minimal Membership for General Council Affiliated Assemblies

If a General Council affiliated church is unable to meet any of the criteria for affiliation as set forth in the Constitution, Article XI, Section 1, paragraph a, it shall seek the assistance of the district officers for help in maintaining the minimal requirement for General Council affiliation. The district may use any means prescribed by its bylaws to assist the church in returning to a position of strength. If the minimal requirements have not been attained, the church shall revert to district affiliated status until the minimal requirements for General Council affiliation have been attained.

Section 6. New Assemblies

The planting of new churches shall be a priority goal of The General Council of the Assemblies of God. Resources at all levels shall be aligned to accomplish this purpose. Initiative for establishing new churches and the oversight of those churches may emanate from local assemblies, sections, and district councils. District presbyteries, sectional committees, or the authorities within a district charged with the responsibility of approving new churches shall not prohibit the planting of new churches unless a compelling reason exists. If it is determined that a compelling reason exists, a minister or local church desiring to plant the church shall have the right to appeal to their district presbytery or authorities within a district charged with the responsibility of approving new churches, and the decision of the district may be appealed to the General Council Executive Presbytery, whose decision shall be final.

Section 7. Assemblies Resulting From a Division

- a. Status of assembly. When efforts to maintain unity and harmony in an assembly have failed, and a division results in a new congregation being formed, the district should exercise strong and wise leadership in ascertaining the facts and seek to preserve Assemblies of God adherents for the Fellowship. Within the bounds of ethical principles, sound doctrine, and district policy, all districts should seek to retain any meritorious group within the Assemblies of God.
- b. Status of minister. Circumstances in each case will determine whether the minister should be disciplined or denied ministry in either the original church or the dissident group, or even residency in the area where the division occurred. If a minister is guilty of inappropriate conduct resulting in a division, the district presbytery shall deal appropriately with the minister as provided in Article X, Section 3, of the Bylaws.

Section 8. Transfer of Local Church Membership

- a. Letter of introduction. It is recommended that members request a letter of introduction from the church of which they are a member to be sent by mail to the church with which they desire to affiliate.
- b. Acknowledgment of transfer. It is recommended that the receiving church shall give an acknowledgment of transfer to the former church.

ARTICLE VII. MINISTRY

Section 1. Ministry Described

Christ's gifts to the Church include apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers (Ephesians 4:11), exhorters, administrators, leaders, and helpers (Romans 12:7,8). We understand God's call to these ministry gifts is totally within His sovereign discretion without regard to gender, race, disability, or national origin

Three classifications of ministry are recognized and transferable among all Assemblies of God districts: the ordained minister, the licensed minister, and the certified minister

All ordained, licensed, and certified ministers holding current ministerial credentials are authorized to perform the ordinances and ceremonies (sacerdotal functions) of the church, and those holding a local church credential as provided below.

A fourth classification of ministry, a local church credential, may be provided by a local General Council affiliated church under basic guidelines adopted by the General Presbytery and such additional guidelines adopted by the district council. The local church credential shall be non-transferable (limited to the issuing local church) and shall be limited to 2 years, unless the credential is solely required for active and ongoing local ministry in a prison, hospital, or institution (renewable by the local church for an additional 2 years). A person holding a local church credential can perform the ordinances and ceremonies (sacerdotal functions) of the church if authorized in writing by the senior pastor of the local church issuing the credential.

Section 2. Basic Qualifications

The following qualifications pertain to all applicants for ministerial recognition:

- a. Salvation. Testimony to having experienced the new birth (John 3:5).
- b. Baptism in the Holy Spirit. Testimony to having received the baptism in the Holy Spirit with the initial physical evidence of speaking in other tongues according to Acts 2:4. The Spirit-filled life will enable a minister to fulfill the threefold mission of the church (Constitution, Article V, paragraph 10).
- c. Evidence of call. Clear evidence of a divine call to the ministry, evidenced by a personal conviction, confirmed by the work of the Spirit and the testimony of fellow ministers.
- d. Christian character. A blameless Christian life and a good report of those who are without (Titus 1:7; 1 Timothy 3:7).
- e. Doctrinal position. A thorough understanding of and agreement with our doctrinal position as contained in the Statement of Fundamental Truths.
- f. Assemblies of God polity. A satisfactory working knowledge of the principles, practices, and purposes of the Fellowship through a study of the General Council and district council Constitution and Bylaws
- g. Voluntary cooperation and commitment to the Fellowship. An active loyalty to our constitutional agreements, a cooperative spirit, and a readiness to seek and receive the counsel of older mature Christians and those in positions of authority.

By voluntary it is meant that, upon learning the principles, doctrines, and practices of the Assemblies of God, and by seeing the benefits to be derived from being associated with such an organization, persons of their own fee choice decide to become members, thus subscribing to all that for which the organization stands.

For the minister, by cooperation, it is meant, to the best of one's ability, complying with all decisions setting forth and defining duties and responsibilities incumbent upon members of the organization. It includes active participation and respect for the will of the majority expressed through constitutional processes.

Hence, for the minister, voluntary cooperation means that when the minister decides to become a cooperating member of the Assemblies of God, this cooperation and participation thereby becomes obligatory and not optional.

h. Commitment to the Fellowship. An active loyalty to our constitutional agreements, a cooperative spirit, and a readiness to seek and receive the counsel of older mature Christians and those in positions of authority.

- i. Basic education requirements. Any level of formal academic achievement (diploma or degree) shall not be a requirement for credentials; however, credential applicants shall meet the following criteria:
  - (1) All applicants are required to be interviewed by the district credentials committee and, in preparation for the interview, pass a standard exam approved by the General Presbytery whereby they demonstrate knowledge of the Bible, Assemblies of God doctrines, and ministerial practices; and either
  - (2) Successfully complete equivalent training to that indicated in paragraph (3) below, preferably, in an endorsed Assemblies of God postsecondary school; or in a seminary, college, Bible college, or school approved by the district credentials committee consistent with criteria established by the General Council Credentials Committee; or
  - (3) Successfully complete courses, prescribed by the General Presbytery, offered in correspondence through Global University of the Assemblies of God, or pass the final examinations in the prescribed courses; or
  - (4) Be recommended by a district credentials committee as qualifying for credentials through self-study and ministerial experience. Such candidates shall have a proven and fruitful ministry of substantial duration. Requests from a district for such a candidate shall be presented to the General Council Credentials Committee and may be granted on a case by case basis.
- j. Mandatory screening. All applicants for ministerial credentials shall be screened through a designated screening agency established by the Executive Presbytery. Said screening shall be done by the district council prior to the submission of the application to the office of the general secretary.
- k. Marriage status. We disapprove of any married persons holding ministerial credentials with the Assemblies of God if either marriage partner has a former spouse living, unless the divorce occurred prior to his or her conversion except as hereinafter provided.
- 1. Ecclesiastical annulments and marriage dissolutions. The Executive Presbytery shall have the authority to determine whether an applicant qualifies for an ecclesiastical annulment. In such cases there must be clear and satisfactory evidence of deception, fraud, or other conditions which have a profound impact preventing the creation of a valid marriage union, unknown at the time of marriage by the applicant. The Executive Presbytery shall have the authority to determine whether an applicant qualifies regarding a former marriage when the termination of that marriage is consistent with the scriptural position of the Fellowship relating to the granting or holding of ministerial credentials; or if a former marriage ended prior to conversion, In those cases involving preconversion divorce they shall be decided on an individual basis just as those that deal with ecclesiastical annulments. Appeals from the decisions of the Executive Presbytery may be made to the General Presbytery.
- m. Eligibility of women. The Scriptures plainly teach that divinely called and qualified women may also serve the church in the ministry of the Word (Joel 2:29; Acts 21:9; 1 Corinthians 11:5). Women who meet the qualifications for ministerial credentials are eligible for whatever grade of credentials their qualifications warrant and have the right to administer the ordinances of the church and are eligible to serve in all levels of church ministry, and/or district and General Council leadership.
- n. Ministers from other organizations. If a minister from another reputable body desires to affiliate with the Assemblies of God, the credentials committees of both the General Council and the district councils are under no obligation to accept the applicant's previous ministerial status, but will judge each candidate on his or her own merits as to the level of credentials to be granted. Such applicants shall be required to:

(1) Conform to Assemblies of God criteria for recognition.

(2) Complete an application for ministerial recognition.

(3) Submit a letter of recommendation from a neighboring Assemblies of God minister or the sectional presbyter for the applicant's area.

- (4) Submit a recommendation from the body with which the minister was formerly affiliated. If such is not available, letters of recommendation should be sought from three reputable ordained ministers who are familiar with the applicant's ministry, two of whom should be with the applicant's former credentialing body.
  - (5) Take the credential examination.
- (6) Complete such courses as may be prescribed by the General Presbytery for ministers transferring from other credentialing bodies.
  - (7) Meet with the district credentials committee for an oral interview.
- (8) Be recommended by the district credentials committee for action by the General Council Credentials Committee.
- (9) All previously ordained ministers so approved shall receive recognition as ordained Assemblies of God ministers with the laying on of hands by the district presbytery. All other applicants so approved shall receive the appropriate level of credential recognition.
- (10) Ministers who receive Assemblies of God recognition shall relinquish their ministerial credentials with any other organization, unless an exception is granted by the General Council Credentials Committee upon recommendation of a district council credentials committee for a minister serving as a missionary in this country who holds a credential with a member body of the World Assemblies of God Fellowship.

Section 3. Specific Qualifications

- a. Residency requirements of applicants. Applicants for all credentials must be residents of or hold credentials in the district where they make application and appear before its credentials committee.
- b. Local church credential. A local church credential shall be administered by the local church pursuant to basic guidelines adopted by the General Presbytery and such additional guidelines adopted by the district council. It shall be non-transferable (limited to the issuing local church).

c. Certified minister.

- (1) General requirements. They shall show promise of usefulness in the gospel work. They shall devote a part of their time to Christian ministry and, at the discretion of the district credentials committees, remain under the supervision of a pastor or a designated supervisor. They shall preach at least 12 times a year or be actively engaged in some other aspect of ministry except in case of ill health or advanced age.
- (2) Pastoral requirements. In the event a certified minister is serving in a position as the pastor, he or she shall be expected to advance to license to preach within 2 years of acceptance of the pastorate. This shall not apply to any minister who has reached the age of 65 or older, or whose certificate has been issued on a provisional basis. Any exceptions shall be at the discretion of the district credentials committee.
- (3) Exception for provisional issuance. A Certificate of Ministry may be issued on a provisional basis to a person who has not met all the credentialing requirements but who is deemed by the district credentials committee to be essential to the continuity of a church or a ministry. The reason for such a provisional issuance must be ministry driven, and the justification for its use is terminated when the minister ceases to be involved in the ministry for which it was initially granted unless the minister accepts another qualifying assignment. Other limitations are:

- (a) The ministry certificate on a provisional basis will be issued for I year and shall not be renewed more than two times.
- (b) A person who has been granted the Certificate of Ministry on a provisional basis must meet the qualifications for a ministry certificate within a 3-year period.

d. Licensed minister. Qualifications for license shall be in two categories:

- (1) Preaching ministry. Clear evidence of a divine call, a practical experience in preaching, together with an evident purpose to devote one's time to preaching the gospel. Licensed ministers shall preach at least 15 times a year, except in case of ill health or infirmity.
- (2) Specialized ministry. An evident purpose to devote one's time to a specialized ministry such as Christian education, music, church-related ministry by a minister's spouse, or other full-time ministries. The same qualifications as outlined in Section 2 of this article shall apply.
- e. Ordained minister. Qualifications for ordination are outlined in the New Testament (1 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:7-9). In addition:
  - (1) Applicants must be 23 years of age or older.
  - (2) They must have met all the requirements in making application and in completing the prescribed application form.
  - (3) No person may be ordained to the ministry until he or she has held a license to preach and has been engaged in active work as a pastor, evangelist, or some other recognized and proven full-time preaching ministry for at least 2 full consecutive years immediately prior thereto.
  - (4) Residency requirements of applicants. Applicants must be residents of or hold credentials in the district where they make application and appear before its credentials committee. District councils are required to refrain from approving any applicant for ordination who may have been licensed in another district, until such licensed minister shall have been a member of the district in which he or she is seeking ordination at least 1 year. Applicants who have not been a member of the district where they apply for ordination for 2 full consecutive years must meet the requirements and secure the endorsement of the officers of the district in which they were previously licensed, as well as the district of their residence.
  - (5) Exceptions to requirements. The General Council Credentials Committee, upon request by a district credentials committee and where exceptional circumstances exist, may waive the requirements for an applicant holding a license to preach for 2 full consecutive years or being a member of the district in which he or she is seeking ordination for at least 1 year.
  - (6) In order to maintain active status, ordained ministers must preach at least 15 times each year.

Section 4. Action of Credentials Committee

The General Council Credentials Committee delegates to the district councils the authority to examine, approve, and recommend candidates who qualify as certified ministers, licensed ministers, and ordained ministers. Final approval and issuance of the ministerial credential shall be made by the General Council Credentials Committee. All ordination services, with the laying on of hands, shall take place under the auspices of the district councils.

Section 5. Certificates

The General Council Credentials Committee is authorized to issue ordination certificates, licenses to preach, specialized ministries licenses, and certificates of ministry, together with the accompanying annual fellowship card, to all properly qualified and approved candidates.

Section 6. Official List

- a. Active ministers. The official list of all credential holders shall be compiled by the General Council Credentials Committee and published for the convenience of the Fellowship, with the understanding it is not to be used for purposes of solicitation. This official list shall be revised annually and shall contain the names of those who are engaged in active ministry and whose credentials have been renewed by the issuance of a fellowship card for the current year.
- b. Inactive or disabled ministers. All credentialed ministers who shall withdraw from active ministry or shall cease to engage in pastoral, evangelistic, or other full-time ministry, shall be expected to notify the district office, which shall inform the general secretary who shall then be authorized to transfer the names of such persons to the inactive list, unless the district of which said person is a member requests otherwise by letter.
  - (1) Definition. All ordained and licensed ministers who shall have preached less than 15 times, and certified ministers who shall have preached less than 12 times, within a period of 1 year or have not been actively engaged in some other aspect of ministry shall have their names placed upon the inactive list for the following year.
  - (2) Removal of inactive ministers from ministerial list. When a minister is inactive for 2 or more consecutive years, his or her name shall be eliminated from the ministerial list, unless the credentials committee of the district of which said person is a member requests otherwise by letter.
  - (3) Exceptions. This shall not apply to those whose inactivity has been caused by infirmity; or those engaged in other aspects of full-time ministry such as Headquarters or district workers, educators, ministers of music, ministers of youth, and ministers of Christian education; or those who have reached the age of 60 years; or those ministers who have had 25 years of approved service as credentialed ministers, or those whose spouse is disabled or has retired giving them little opportunity for public ministry.
  - (4) Ministers with disabilities. Ministers with permanent disability or illness which prevents them from engaging in active ministry, shall be indicated as disabled.
- c. Restoration to active status. Should the minister at any time return to active ministry, his or her name may be restored to the active list upon application bearing endorsement by the district officiary.

Section 7. Senior Ministers

In respect and honor to those ministers who have given years of service to the Fellowship, senior status shall automatically be given to all credential holders who have reached the age of 65, whether or not they continue in full-time ministry.

a. Terminology

 The term senior-active shall be used for credential holders who continue to serve three-quarters to full-time in the ministry.

- (2) The term senior-semiretized shall be used for credential holders who continue to be active, but for half-time or less.
- (3) The term senior-retired shall be used for those who have ceased to engage in any regular appointed ministry.
- b. Application for retired category. Senior-semiretired and senior-retired status shall be granted only to those ministers who filed a request for such status with their district office. The district secretary shall forward annually to the general secretary a list of those ministers who have made these requests.

c. Guidelines

- (1) Reports. Senior-active and senior-semiretired ministers shall continue to file their annual reports and pay the General Council portion of their tithes in the regular manner. Senior-retired ministers shall file an abbreviated report to maintain a correct address file for mail and insurance purposes.
- (2) Sources of income. These designations and guidelines shall apply regardless of whether the senior minister's income is from ministry, from retirement plans or Social Security payments, or from investments or other employment.
- (3) Designation in publications. No distinguishing mark shall accompany the listing of senior-active in the official publications of the Assemblies of God, but may be so indicated in the working lists used for insurance and retirement purposes. Senior-semiretired and senior-retired ministers shall have this status indicated in the Official List of Assemblies of God Ministers.
- (4) Support of General Council Headquarters. Senior-active and senior-semiretired ministers shall continue to designate the required amount of support to the General Council Headquarters as set forth in Bylaws, Article XIII, Section 1, paragraph c, (1). Senior-retired ministers shall be free to distribute as they desire the portion of their tithes previously paid to the General Council.
- d. Aged Ministers Assistance. It is recommended that all Assemblies of God churches contribute regularly to provide assistance to aged ministers who are in need of financial assistance. Assistance shall be made available to ordained ministers of the Assemblies of God and to their widows, because of age or physical infirmity, and for whom no other means of support is available. Eligibility shall be determined on the following basis:
  - (1) Ministerial requirement. The applicant shall have been an ordained minister in good standing and have held credentials for at least 10 years immediately prior to retirement.
  - (2) Age requirement. The applicant shall have reached the age of 65 in the case of an ordained minister, or 60 in the case of a spouse of a minister.
  - (3) Disability requirement. Ministers who have been disabled to the extent that they cannot perform their ministerial duties shall also be eligible to make application.
  - (4) Financial cooperation requirement. The record of the applicant shall indicate that he or she has complied with the approved financial plans of the district council and The General Council of the Assemblies of God.
  - (5) District endorsement requirement. Unqualified endorsement must be given by the district officers.

e. Limitations of this Section 7

- (1) For General Council usage only. The definitions and decisions included in Section 7 apply only to General Council usage and are not binding upon the various districts, nor to the official legislation under which their members serve.
- (2) Other financial responsibility not circumvented. No part of Section 7 is intended to modify the responsibility of ministers to their districts nor to terminate the biblical responsibility for tithing.

Section 8. Ministerial Relations

- a. Amenability. All certified, licensed, and ordained ministers shall be amenable to both the district council and The General Council of the Assemblies of God in matters of doctrine and discipline. (See Bylaws, Article X.) All local church credential holders shall be amenable to their local church under guidelines established by the General Presbytery and district council in matters of doctrine and discipline. (See Bylaws, Article VII, Section 1.)
- b. Affiliation with district of residence. All credential holders shall be expected to affiliate with the district council within the boundaries of which they reside and work in cooperation with the same.
  - (1) Exception. Ministers who reside in one district but pastor or serve on the staff of a church located in another district shall be required to be a member of the district in which the church is located.
  - (2) Nationally appointed U.S. missionaries. Nationally appointed U.S. missionaries shall become members of the district in which they serve and shall be listed on the ministerial roster of that district by the office of the general secretary. They may also retain honorary membership in their home district, be listed as a missionary under national appointment in the home district's yearbook, and be extended voice and vote in their home district while on official furlough.
  - (3) Church-planting ministries. Ministers who serve in a transdistrict ministry related to church-planting efforts may do so provided:
    - (a) They have a scope of ministry which reaches beyond district boundaries; and
      - (b) Both districts agree to the assignment; and
    - (c) If the assignment involves a language group, they follow the guidelines provided by the Executive Presbytery of the General Council and adhere to these Bylaws governing interdistrict relations. (See Bylaws, Article V, Section 5.)

Church planters holding credentials may obtain affiliation with the district they intend to serve and retain honorary membership in their home district, be listed in the home district's yearbook, and be extended voice and vote in their home district for such time as they serve in another district. The financial responsibilities shall be the same as those of a nationally appointed U.S. missionary. [See Bylaws, Article VII, Section 8, paragraph c, subparagraph (3).]

- c. Cooperation with other districts. Ministers shall be expected to cooperate with other district councils in which they may labor temporarily. It is recommended as a standard of proper practice that all ministers conform to the financial policy of the district with which they are affiliated with the following exceptions:
  - (1) Financial responsibility of world missionaries. World missionaries will be obligated to pay $25 per month to their home district when resident in the U.S. and $10 per month when resident on their fields.

- (2) Financial responsibility of chaplains. All chaplains, military and institutional, will be obligated to their home district in the amount of 10 percent of their tithes from income earned from the chaplaincy. All chaplains are also encouraged to make voluntary contributions to the district in which they fulfill their assignments.
- (3) Financial responsibility of nationally appointed or approved U.S. missionaries. Nationally appointed or approved U.S. missionaries shall contribute 25 percent of their tithe to their member district where they serve and 25 percent of their tithe to their home district if they are listed as honorary members. Missionaries who minister in their home district shall contribute a minimum of 50 percent of their tithe to that district.

Section 9. Transfer of Credentials

- a. Certificate of transfer. When a member minister takes up residence in another district, a certificate of transfer shall be issued within 60 days by the district of which he or she is a member, unless there are charges pending against the minister. The certificate of transfer shall be accepted by the district into which the minister moves. Exceptions may be made for the following:
  - (1) Ministers moving to serve at the Assemblies of God Headquarters.
  - (2) Those who have attained the age of 60 and are no longer engaged in active ministry and those who have attained the age of 65 and are not pastoring a church.
    - (3) Those who are in the Armed Forces currently on active duty.
  - (4) Those who are serving on the staffs of schools affiliated with the General Council and district council or nonaffiliated schools acceptable to the General Council and the district council in which the school is located.
  - (5) Those who are appointed U.S. missionaries or world missionaries who are on furlough or on temporary assignment in the United States and reside in a district other than their home district.
  - (6) Ministers having membership in one district and a mailing address only in another district.
    - (7) Students in schools outside their home districts.
    - (8) Those who are serving in a non-Assemblies of God institution providing:
    - (a) They have a regular scope of ministry which reaches beyond district boundaries.
      - (b) Both districts agree to the exception.
      - (c) The institution is acceptable to both districts.
    - (9) Church planters involved in transdistrict ministry.
- b. Transfers from Assemblies of God World Fellowship. A minister holding ordination (or equivalent) with a member group of the Assemblies of God World Fellowship, may transfer his or her ordination to The General Council of the Assemblies of God if the following criteria are met:
  - (1) A letter of recommendation from the executive committee of the national church or equivalent letter of recommendation.
    - (2) A course on history and polity of U.S. church.
    - (3) A completed ministerial application.
- c. Transcript. In order to assist a member minister who is transferring into another district, a transcript giving helpful information concerning the minister and his or her spouse should accompany the certificate of transfer.

Section 10. Credential Renewals and Reinstatements

a. Terminology

- (1) Renewed. The term renewed shall apply to all ministers who have met the annual deadline for renewal including those who are delinquent but who renew by January 15.
- (2) Reinstated. The term reinstated shall apply to the persons whose names have been deleted from the official ministerial list, who upon application, are approved for restoration of credentials.
- b. Expiration date. All fellowship certificates are valid only until December 31 of each year and must be renewed annually. The renewing of credentials is the responsibility of the individual minister. Ministers who do not receive an annual renewal form by December 1 should notify their district office.
- c. Grace period until January 15. All who have not renewed their fellowship certificates by mail postmarked on or before December 31 shall be considered delinquent. They shall be required to pay a late fee of $25 up until January 15, to be divided equally between the district and General Council.
- d. Reinstatement of lapsed minister. Ministers whose renewal applications are not postmarked by January 15 shall be recorded as lapsed as of December 31. They must make application for reinstatement and pay a nonrefundable fee of $50, to be divided equally between the district and the General Council. These ministers shall not be subject to the minimal time-lapse required of those whose credentials have been terminated for other causes.
- e. Reinstatement of other than dismissed minister. When a minister who is a member of our Fellowship is removed from our rolls for any cause, except failure to renew and dismissal, and shall apply for reinstatement, he or she shall not be eligible for reinstatement until at least 6 months have elapsed after his or her name has been stricken from our list of ministers. The application must be made in the district where the minister resides and be accompanied with a nonrefundable fee of $50 to be divided between the district and the General Council (See Bylaws, Article X, Section 12, paragraph b, for reinstatement of dismissed minister.)

The district of residence shall seek a letter of clearance from the district that processed the termination and, upon receipt of the clearance, may add its endorsement and forward the application, together with the letter of clearance, to the General Council Credentials Committee for its action.

f. Support of Headquarters. The work of The General Council of the Assemblies of God, in its program of developing the spirit of cooperation and fellowship in U.S. and world missions fields, incurs considerable expense, including the financial support of the executive officers and offices.

Ordained ministers should recognize their obligation to contribute $20 per month ($240 per year) from their tithes, or as an offering. Licensed ministers should contribute $15 per month ($180 per year), and certified ministers should contribute $7.50 per month ($90 per year). All who can are strongly urged to give more than the suggested amount, either personally or through the assemblies they pastor.

Compliance with the above requirements shall be a prerequisite for renewal of credentials of all active ministers. If their contributions are in arrears, they shall be given opportunity to meet this deficit with their renewal.

The general treasurer's office shall submit to the respective district offices a semiannual report of ministers' contributions for the support of Headquarters. Each district shall make this information available to its ministers by any of the following methods:

- (a) Collectively, through district publications.
- (b) Individually, through personal letters
- (c) Through any other media selected by the district.

The districts shall carefully analyze the annual report of each minister and, in their knowledge of local situations, determine if he or she has been voluntarily cooperating with the General Council financial program.

Section 11. Nondisciplinary Credential Terminations

a. On the initiative of the minister.

- (1) Lapsed. Ministers who do not renew their credentials shall be listed as lapsed, provided there is no cause for disciplinary action. Their names shall be published as lapsed in the Assemblies of God Ministers Letter, hereinafter referred to as the ministers letter.
- (2) Resigned. Ministers who elect to remove themselves from the Fellowship shall submit a letter of resignation to the district with which they are affiliated. If there is no cause for disciplinary action, their resignation shall become effective after having been approved by both the district council and General Council credentials committees. Their termination shall be listed in the ministers letter as resigned.

b. On the initiative of the district. (See Article X, Section 4.)

- (1) Inactive. When a minister becomes inactive for 2 consecutive years, according to the stipulations set forth in Bylaws, Article VII, Section 6, paragraph b, his or her name shall be published as inactive in the ministers letter.
- (2) Not renewed. If in the opinion of the credentials committees a minister's credentials should not be renewed short of disciplinary action, the minister's name shall be published as not renewed in the ministers letter.
- c. As a result of affiliation with another church organization. In the event a minister shall identify with another organization granting ministerial credentials, and shall have received such credentials, his or her credentials with The General Council of the Assemblies of God shall be terminated. An investigation shall be made to determine the proper category of termination.
- d. Surrender of credentials. In all cases the minister shall be requested to surrender his or her credential (Certificate of Ordination, License to Preach, Specialized Ministries License, Certificate of Ministry) and current fellowship card to the district office. The district shall forward these to the office of the general secretary of The General Council of the Assemblies of God. Refusal to surrender his or her credential and current fellowship card shall be considered insubordination and may result in placing a charge against the minister.

Section 12. Ministerial Status Changes

All changes in a minister's status are to be reported immediately to his or her district office, which in turn is to report this information to the office of the general secretary of the General Council, on the Ministerial Status Report form provided by that office

Section 13. Privileged Communications

Assemblies of God ministers are encouraged to respect as sacred and confidential information confided to them while they are functioning in their ministerial capacities as spiritual counselors and are encouraged not to disclose such confidential information except with the permission of the confidant, to prevent the commission of a crime, or if required by law.

ARTICLE VIII. CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE AND FAMILY

Section 1. Christian Marriage

Marriage was established by God in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 2:18, 21-25) and confirmed by Jesus Christ to be a permanent relationship between a man and a woman (Matthew 19:4-6). Because marriage is not only a commitment to a spouse, but also to God (Genesis 2:24; Mark 10:9; Ephesians 5:31), a believer should marry only another believer (2 Corinthians 6:14). Christian marriage is a reflection of the love, purity, and permanence between Christ and the Church (Ephesians 5:23-33).

Even though some marriages may fall short of the biblical ideal (see Article IX, B, Section 5), husbands and wives who devote themselves to God (Ephesians 5:21) and find nurture and instruction in the body of Christ (Hebrews 10:25) can realize the strength and blessing of God in their relationship.

Section 2, Children

Children "are a heritage from the Lord;" therefore, rearing them is to be treated as a sacred trust. God's strength and wisdom are available on a daily basis in order to bring up children to love and obey God (Proverbs 22:6; Ephesians 6:4).

ARTICLE IX. DOCTRINES AND PRACTICES DISAPPROVED

A. COMMISSION ON DOCTRINAL PURITY

- a. Authorization and purpose. A Commission on Doctrinal Purity shall be established for the purpose of giving careful attention to preventing deviations from the Statement of Fundamental Truths and proliferation of unscriptural teachings. The commission shall receive its assignments from and make its reports to the Executive Presbytery.
- b. Appointments and terms of office. The commission shall be appointed by the Executive Presbytery and shall consist of 10 members representing, insofar as possible, the area divisions of the Assemblies of God. Members shall be recognized authorities in biblical knowledge. Their terms of office shall be for 4 years.

c. Vacancies and terminations. The Executive Presbytery shall be empowered to declare the office of any commission member vacant should it deem such action advisable. A decision to declare a vacancy and to fill such vacancy may be made at any meeting of the Executive Presbytery.

B. LIST OF DOCTRINES AND PRACTICES DISAPPROVED

In accord with its constitutional prerogatives, The General Council of the Assemblies of God has declared itself pertaining to disapproval of certain matters as follows:

Section 1. Unconditional Security

In view of the biblical teaching that the security of the believer depends on a living relationship with Christ (John 15:6); in view of the Bible's call to a life of holiness (1 Peter 1:16; Hebrews 12:14); in view of the clear teaching that a man may have his part taken out of the Book of Life (Revelation 22:19); and in view of the fact that one who believes for a while can fall away (Luke 8:13); The General Council of the Assemblies of God disapproves of the unconditional security position which holds that it is impossible for a person once saved to be lost.

Section 2. Legalism

- a. Matters of conscience. The Assemblies of God disapproves of those who hold to matters of conscience, such as eating or not eating meats, who press their opinions on others.
- b. Adding conditions to salvation. The Assemblies of God also disapproves of those who hold to issues which seem to add conditions to salvation, such as keeping the seventh day, who press their opinions on others.

Section 3. Eschatological Errors

- a. The restitution of all things. The Assemblies of God understands the teaching of Acts 3:21 to limit the restoration to that of which the prophets have spoken, thus denying the universal redemption theory. We are opposed to all forms of universalism (Matthew 25:46; Revelation 20:10).
- b. Setting a date for the Lord's return. It is unwise to teach that the Lord will come at some specified time, thereby setting a date for His appearing (Mark 13:32,33; Luke 12:37-40; 1 Thessalonians 5:2). It is also unwise to give out from the platform, or publish, visions of numbers and dates fixing the time of the second coming of the Lord.
- c. Post-Tribulation Rapture. The General Council of the Assemblies of God has declared itself in the Statement of Fundamental Truths that it holds to the belief in the imminent coming of the Lord as the blessed hope of the Church; and since the teaching that the Church must go through the Tribulation tends to bring confusion and division among the saints, it is recommended that all our ministers teach the imminent coming of Christ, warning all to be prepared for that coming, which may occur at any time, and not lull their minds into complacency by any teaching that would cause them to feel that specific Tribulation events must occur before the rapture of the saints.

- d. Amillennialism. The General Council of the Assemblies of God disapproves of the amillennial teaching and its attendant erroneous philosophy which denies the fact of a literal 1,000-year reign of Christ on the earth, and substitutes for it the theory that this Christian or Church dispensation is the spiritual Millennium of which, its proponents say, the Bible writers prophesied.
- e. Credentials jeopardized if made an issue. We recommend that those ministers who embrace any of the foregoing eschatological errors refrain from preaching or teaching them. Should they persist in emphasizing these doctrines to the point of making them an issue, their standing in the Fellowship will be seriously affected (Luke 21:34-36; 1 Thessalonians 5:9,10; 2 Thessalonians 1:4-10; Revelation 3:10,19,20).

Section 4. Membership in Secret Orders

Ours is a last-day message in preparation for the coming of the Lord (Matthew 24:14), leaving us no alternative but wholehearted devotion to the cause of spreading the gospel (Luke 9:62); and it is well known that the various secret orders require much valuable time and interest, thus diverting the servant of the Lord out of the way (Ephesians 5:16).

The nature of such organizations demands secrecy (John 18:20; Acts 26:26) reinforced by religious oaths (Matthew 5:34) and strong attachment by binding obligations to persons who are for the most part unregenerated (2 Corinthians 6:14). The spirit, philosophy, and general influence of such secret orders aim at the improvement of the natural man only (1 Corinthians 2:14; Colossians 2:8), thus wrongly channeling by incorrect interpretation important spiritual truths (2 Peter 3:16).

Confidence in these secret orders and their teachings has always tended toward the embracing of a false hope of salvation through good works and improved moral service (Ephesians 2:8,9).

In consideration of the foregoing, all ministers affiliated with the Assemblies of God should refrain from identifying themselves with any of the secret orders that the General Council recognizes as essentially of the world, worldly; and the General Council advises any who may have identified themselves with such orders to sever their connections with them (2 Corinthians 6:17). Furthermore, Assemblies of God ministers are requested to use their good influence among our lay members to dissuade them from such fraternal affiliations (1 Timothy 4:12; 2 Timothy 2:24-26).

Section 5. Divorce and Remarriage

a. Membership

- (1) Marriage entanglements before conversion. There are now among Christian people those who became entangled in their marriage relations in their former lives of sin and who do not see how these matters can be adjusted. We recommend that these people be received into the membership of local assemblies and that their marriage complications be left in the hands of the Lord (1 Corinthians 7:17,20,24).
- (2) Common-law marriages. We recommend that in no case shall persons be accepted into membership who are known to be living in a common-law state of matrimony.
- b. Remarriage. Low standards on marriage and divorce are very hurtful to individuals, to the family, and to the cause of Christ. Therefore, we discourage divorce by all lawful means and teaching. We positively disapprove of Christians getting divorces for any cause except fornication and adultery (Matthew 19:9). Where these exceptional circumstances exist or when a Christian has been divorced by an unbeliever, we recommend that the question of remarriage be resolved by the believer in the light of God's Word (1 Corinthians 7:15,27,28).

c. Local church leadership

(1) Standard for offices of bishop, or elder, and deacon. Since the New Testament restricts divorced and remarried believers from the church offices of bishop, or elder, and deacon, we recommend that this standard be upheld by all our assemblies (Titus 1:5-9; 1 Timothy 3:12), except when the divorce occurred prior to conversion (2 Corinthians 5:17).

(2) Prerogative of local assemblies. It is understood that recommendations are not binding, but local assemblies shall maintain the prerogative of setting their own standards (in accord with provisions of Article XI of the Constitution).

d. Performing marriage ceremonies

(1) Ministerial guidelines. We discourage any Assemblies of God minister performing a marriage ceremony for anyone who has been divorced and whose former spouse is still living, unless the case is included in the exceptional circumstances described in Bylaws, Article IX, B, Section 5, paragraph b.

(2) Violation of conscience not required. We realize that the remarrying of such persons included in the exceptive circumstances in Bylaws, Article IX, B, Section 5, paragraph b, could violate the conscience of a minister; and if this should be the case, the minister should not be expected to perform such ceremonies

(3) Same-sex ceremonies. No minister shall perform any type of marriage, cohabitation, or covenant ceremony for persons who are of the same sex. Such a ceremony would endorse homosexuality which is a sin and strictly forbidden in God's Word (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13; Romans 1:26,27; 1 Corinthians 6:9; 1 Timothy 1:9-11). Any minister of our Fellowship who performs a ceremony for these types of disapproved relations, unless innocently deceived into doing so, shall be dismissed from the Fellowship.

(4) Counsel. An Assemblies of God minister is urged to counsel applicants for marriage ceremonies with scriptural guidelines for Christian marriage prior to performing the ceremony. A minister may not perform ceremonies for persons who, in the minister's opinion, approach marriage without proper forethought, wisdom, and sobriety.

e. Ministerial credentials. We disapprove of any married minister of the Assemblies of God holding credentials if either minister or spouse has a former spouse living unless the divorce occurred prior to conversion. (See also Bylaws, Article VII, Section 2, paragraphs k and l.)

Section 6. Worldliness

In view of the alarming erosion of national moral standards, we reaffirm our intention of holding up Bible standards against all forms of worldliness. We urge all believers to "love not the world, neither the things that are in the world.... For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (1 John 2:15,16).

In its teaching regarding worldliness, the Scriptures warn against participation in activity that defiles the body, or corrupts the mind and spirit; the inordinate love of or preoccupation with pleasures, position, or possessions, which lead to their misuse; manifestation of extreme behavior, unbecoming speech, or inappropriate appearance; any fascination or association which lessens one's affection for spiritual things (Luke 21:34,35; Romans 8:5-8; 12:1,2; 2 Corinthians 6:14-18; Ephesians 5:11; 1 Timothy 2:8-10; 4:12; James 4:4; 1 John 2:15-17; Titus 2:12).

Section 7. Abuses of Stewardship

a. Tithing

- (1) According to the Scriptures, tithes should be used for the support of the active ministry and for the propagation of the gospel and work of the Lord and not be given to charity or used for other purposes. In tithing, the ministers ought to be examples.
- (2) We recognize the duty of tithing and urge all our people to pay tithes to God. It is recommended that arrangements satisfactory to the pastor and the church be made by all pastors and churches, so that the pastor may receive regular and adequate support. We disapprove, however, of the teaching that all tithes necessarily should belong to the pastor for his or her support.

b. Solicitation of funds

- (1) It is considered improper and unethical for ministers or missionaries to solicit funds, by letter or otherwise, for anything or any reason whatsoever without proper authorization.
- (2) The purpose of this section is not to hinder or discourage legitimate projects but to protect the Fellowship from those who employ methods not in harmony with Assemblies of God principles or policies.

Leaders in local projects shall have unquestioned freedom in local churches or communities.

Projects of general interest to the district must have authorization of the district officers.

Projects or institutions of national scope that plan to solicit funds from Assemblies of God churches must have the authorization of the Executive Presbytery of The General Council of the Assemblies of God.

Promotion of all projects of a missions character must have the authorization of the Executive Presbytery.

- (3) The obtaining and use of mailing lists for promotional purposes not having proper authorization or which are not in keeping with policies of The General Council of the Assemblies of God shall be considered improper and unethical, whether it be under the name of a prayer chain beyond a local scope, chain letters, or appeals to the constituency for the support of ventures of strictly local or personal character. All offenders guilty of the practices expressed in the foregoing paragraphs shall be subject to discipline.
- c. Private ownership of religious institutions. The General Council of the Assemblies of God approves the holding of title to all church buildings, schools, or other institutions that are supported by funds solicited for the work of God by properly constituted corporations. It disapproves the holding of title to such properties by the ministers of the Assemblies of God, through private ownership, corporations sole, or closed corporations. In the event a local congregation is not incorporated or set in order by the district council, title should be vested in properly qualified trustees. Where private ownership exists, a properly incorporated body shall be formed and title to the property shall be transferred to the corporation.

A disregard of this principle and recommendation shall seriously affect the relation of the Assemblies of God members involved in such ownership.

Section 8. Violations of Ministerial Courtesy

All discourteous conduct is disapproved, and all ministers are advised against interfering with pastors in charge of assemblies, whether it be by going in upon their work without consent or by such correspondence with members of the assembly as will hurt the influence of the leader. All correspondence which concerns the whole assembly shall be addressed to the one in charge and not to individual members. Where there is no pastor, letters concerning the work shall be addressed to the officers of the assembly.

Any minister who so offends shall be subject to discipline.

Section 9. Ministry in a Non-Assemblies of God Church

Ministers shall not be limited or restrained from entering open doors to preach this Pentecostal message, so long as they retain Assemblies of God doctrine, standards of holiness, proper attitudes, and proper ministerial conduct without compromise.

Inasmuch as unity is a vital principle for growth and spiritual development of the Assemblies of God Fellowship, it is essential that we recognize our relationship to each other and that we practice Christian cooperation in all our pastoral, evangelistic, missionary, and local church work.

We recommend therefore that our ministers confer with district council officials before engaging in ministry in any church group or organization not affiliated with the Assemblies of God so as to ascertain whether such ministry might result in confusion or misunderstandings. If the minister does not have district approval, he or she shall be expected to refrain from conducting services for the church. Ministers who violate this principle shall be subject to discipline.

Section 10. An Improper Attitude Toward Those Removed From the Fellowship

In order to render effective decisions made in the interest of proper discipline and for the protection of our assemblies, all who hold credentials, and local churches holding certificates of affiliation, shall refrain from taking an attitude toward offenders that would tend to nullify or set at naught the solemn verdict of those entrusted with this responsibility. Those who fail to support said verdict shall be subject to reprimand or, if persisted in, appropriate discipline.

Section 11. Interdenominational or ecumenical relationships

The General Council of the Assemblies of God encourages ministers or churches to fellowship with other Christians of like precious faith who hold to the inspiration of Scripture, the deity of Christ, the universality of sin, the substitutionary Atonement, the physical resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and His second coming.

The General Council of the Assemblies of God shall not belong to any interdenominational or ecumenical organization that denies the evangelical beliefs stated in the above paragraph, and urges its ministers and churches to avoid entanglement with such interdenominational or ecumenical organizations except as opportunity may arise to support biblical values in the culture or provide opportunity to bear witness to our evangelical and Pentecostal faith and experience.

Section 12. Divine Healing and Professional Medicine

The General Council of the Assemblies of God disapproves of any credentialed minister counseling a believer to exclude medical advice and/or treatment when seeking prayer for physical healing. Assemblies of God ministers shall not represent medical advice and/or treatment as a lack of faith in God's healing power.

ARTICLE X. DISCIPLINE

Section 1. The Nature and Purposes of Discipline

Discipline is an exercise of scriptural authority for which the church is responsible. The aims of discipline are that God may be honored, that the purity and welfare of the ministry may be maintained, and that those under discipline may be brought to repentance and restoration.

Discipline is to be administered for the restoration of the minister, while fully providing for the protection of the spiritual welfare of our local assemblies. It is to be redemptive in nature as well as corrective, and is to be exercised as under a dispensation of mercy.

Section 2. The Relationship Between the District and General Council Credentials Committees

The Executive Presbytery of the General Council is the Credentials Committee of The General Council of the Assemblies of God (Constitution, Article X, Sections 4 and 6). It shall have the final authority in matters of doctrine and the personal conduct of all certified, licensed, and ordained ministers. District actions related to the termination of credentials or the remedial discipline of rehabilitation are to be in the form of recommendations to the General Council Credentials Committee. All references to the discipline of ministers within this article of the Bylaws relate solely to certified, licensed, and ordained ministers.

Section 3. Causes of Disciplinary Action

Violations of Assemblies of God principles as stated in these Constitution and Bylaws may give cause for disciplinary action by the credentials committees. Among such causes for action shall be:

- a. Moral failure involving sexual misconduct.
- b. Moral failure involving pornography.
- c. Any moral or ethical failure other than sexual misconduct.
- d. General inefficiency in the ministry.
- e. A failure to represent our Pentecostal testimony correctly.
- f. A contentious or noncooperative spirit.
- g. An assumption of dictatorial authority over an assembly.
- h. An arbitrary rejection of district counsel.
- i. A declared open change in doctrinal views.
- j. A habit of running into debt which brings reproach upon the gospel.
- k. A marriage in violation of our stand on marriage and divorce. (Bylaws, Article IX, B, Section 5, paragraphs d and e.)
- 1. Violations of ministerial courtesy. (See Bylaws, Article IX, B, Section 8.)
- m. Ministry without prior approval in a non-Assemblies of God church. (See Bylaws, Article IX, B, Section 9.)
- n. An improper attitude toward those dismissed from the Fellowship. (See Bylaws, Article IX, B, Section 10.)

Notwithstanding the above, when more than 7 years have elapsed from an occurrence that is cause for disciplinary action, a district credentials committee may recommend to the General Council Credentials Committee that no discipline be administered when, in view of all the circumstances, it would appear that such discipline would serve only as punitive in nature rather than rehabilitative. In all such cases, final determination shall be made by the General Council Credentials Committee.

Section 4. Right of Initiative

- a. Authority. Occasions sometimes arise which make it necessary to deal with ministers who for some reason seem to have reached the place where, in the opinion of the leaders, endorsement can no longer be given. Credentials committees which have the authority to ordain ministers and to recommend them for credentials also have the right to withdraw their approval and to recommend the recall of credentials.
- b. Prior right of district. The officers of the district in which an alleged offense is reported to have occurred shall be recognized as having the prior right of initiative in matters of discipline.
- c. Responsibility of district of affiliation. If the district in which an alleged offense is reported to have occurred for some reason cannot take action, the General Council Credentials Committee shall refer the matter, together with the facts and supporting instruments, to the district with which the minister is affiliated.
- d. Responsibility of General Council Credentials Committee. In the event a district fails to take action within 90 days after a matter has been referred to it, it shall be the responsibility of the General Council Credentials Committee to see that action is initiated.

Section 5. Investigation of Reports or Complaints of Alleged Violations or Confessions of Violations of Assemblies of God Principles

- a. Within the Districts of The General Council of the Assemblies of God. Reports or complaints of alleged violations of Assemblies of God principles (Bylaws, Article X, Section 3) or confessions of such by a minister shall be investigated. The superintendent of the district in which the alleged offense is reported to have occurred, or an appointed representative, shall conduct the investigation to determine their source and validity. It is the responsibility of the district superintendent to safeguard the church, the minister, the district, and the Fellowship. In the event such reports or complaints against a minister are filed with the General Council Credentials Committee, they shall be referred to the district in which the offense occurred for investigation. A copy shall be sent to the district with which the minister is affiliated.
  - (1) Interview with complainants. The persons involved shall be interviewed to ascertain the facts in the case and the reasons underlying the persistence of the reports or complaints.
  - (2) Interview with accused minister. The accused minister shall be given an opportunity to be interviewed to discuss the complaints received in the hope that the matter can be resolved.

- (3) Signed complaints. In the event the investigation so warrants, a signed complaint shall be filed with the district office by each complainant describing the alleged offense.
- (4) Conditions for ministry during investigation. Conditions of continuing ministry may be subject to restriction during the time of investigation at the discretion of the appropriate district officers on the basis of evidence at hand and the nature of the alleged offense. Such conditions are subject to review in 3month intervals until such investigation has been completed resulting in either clearing the person of the allegations or filing formal charges.
- b. Outside United States. In case the alleged misconduct occurs outside the United States in an area under the general oversight of the Assemblies of God World Missions, that division shall take the initiative to file complete data with the district of the minister's affiliation. Any hearing or trial affecting that individual's ministerial credentials shall be held in the district of the minister's affiliation. The Assemblies of God World Missions shall convey all information available to the said district as follows:
  - (1) Report to district of affiliation. At the earliest date after the Assemblies of God World Missions receives a report of misconduct, such report shall be conveyed by telephone and by letter to the superintendent of the district with which the minister is affiliated.
  - (2) Confidential file. A confidential file shall be submitted to the superintendent, conveying all information as it becomes available to the division. A final complete file shall be prepared under the direction of the field director of the field involved and shall be presented to the district superintendent for use in any action the district may take.
  - (3) Additional information. When in the judgment of the Assemblies of God World Missions or the district involved, basic information is lacking (which information may be available at the site of the alleged misconduct), arrangements may be made for the gathering of such.

Section 6. Preparation and Filing of Charges

If after due investigation it is determined that charges should be made, proper charges shall be prepared and filed in the district office. If no one appears to sign the charges, the district officers making the investigation may file charges based on the evidence in their possession. The person against whom charges have been filed shall be informed in writing by certified mail, at the last address furnished to the district, of the charges made in keeping with Bylaws, Article X, Section 3.

Section 7. District Hearing and Discipline

- a. District hearing. In the event the reports or complaints cannot be dealt with privately to the satisfaction of all concerned, the superintendent of the district in which the alleged offense is said to have occurred, or the superintendent of the district with which the minister is affiliated, shall arrange for a hearing by the district credentials committee for the accused minister. The minister shall be required to appear at the hearing in the hope the matter can be resolved.
- b. Forfeiture of rights of accused. A hearing shall not be considered as final disposition of the case until the accused be present and be allowed all rights and privileges granted herein. However, an accused member may be found guilty of charges and disciplined for failure to appear at the hearing, or if proof is found of willful neglect to take advantage of rights and privileges provided in these Bylaws.

c. Discipline

(1) Cause for discipline. A minister who has been found guilty of violating any of the Assemblies of God principles set forth in Bylaws, Article X, Section 3, either by a confession of the minister involved or by deliberation of the district presbytery, shall be subject to disciplinary action.

(2) Determination of discipline. It shall be the responsibility of the credentials committees to determine whether the circumstances of the case merit rehabilitation or dismissal. The credentials committees shall weigh decisions on: (a) the basis of the offense itself, (b) the manner and thoroughness of repentance, (c) the attitude of the offending minister toward the discipline, and (d) the willingness manifested to cooperate.

(3) Administering discipline redemptively. If the district determines that guilt has been established, discipline shall be administered prayerfully and in the fear of God, in accordance with the Scriptures, and as set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws of this ecclesiastical body (Bylaws, Article X, Sections 8 and 9).

d. Surrender of credentials. Disciplined ministers shall be required to surrender their ministerial credentials and their current fellowship card to the district office. In the event of rehabilitation the credentials shall be held in the district office. In the event of dismissal the district shall forward the credentials to the general secretary of The General Council of the Assemblies of God. Refusal to surrender ministerial credentials and current fellowship card may result in placing an additional charge against the minister.

Section 8. Rehabilitation

Recognizing that the underlying principle involved in discipline is redemptive, and that man's conscience frequently brings him to judgment and confession, and that justice can sometimes be best served with mercy, an effort should be made to lead the offending minister through a program of rehabilitation, administered in love and kindness. The following provisions for rehabilitation shall apply.

- a. Basis. Those found to have violated any of the Assemblies of God principles (Bylaws, Article X, Section 3) may request a program of rehabilitation as an alternative to dismissal. Rehabilitation is a privilege granted out of mercy and not a right to be expected or demanded. The primary purpose is to restore a person to God, spouse, and family, with the results leading to possible restoration to ministry. Granting such request shall be at the discretion of the district and General Council credentials committees.
- b. Procedure and requirements. The following procedure shall be used by the district presbytery in determining the specific requirements for rehabilitation for the individual minister.
  - (1) Rehabilitation requirements. The specific terms and conditions of the rehabilitation program as recommended by the district credentials committee are to be forwarded to the General Council Credentials Committee for approval. After such approval they shall be given to the minister.
    - (a) Suspension. The minister shall be considered to be under suspension during the entire period of rehabilitation.
      - (b) Terms and Conditions
      - (1) Period of Time. The program for rehabilitation shall continue for not less than 1 year except when the violation involves misconduct defined in Bylaws, Article X, Section 3, paragraph a, in which case it shall continue for not less than 2 years.

- (2) Authority. The General Presbytery shall be authorized to establish guidelines and policy in regard to terms and conditions of rehabilitation. Such guidelines and policy shall be consistent with provisions of the bylaws.
- (c) Extent of ministry. The extent to which ministry may be permitted, if any, shall be determined by the district presbytery, subject to the approval of the General Council Credentials Committee and compatible with the guidelines and policy established by the General Presbytery.

(d) District membership. The minister shall not be permitted to transfer his or her membership to another district during the period of rehabilitation.

- (e) Publication. While the minister's credentials are in a state of suspension, the minister's name shall not be removed from the ministerial roster, nor shall the minister's disciplinary status be published in either the General Council or district council official publications.
- (f) Credentials renewal. The minister shall renew his or her credentials annually in the regular manner.
- (g) Supervision. In the event his or her ministerial activity has been terminated, the minister must become established in a local church working under the supervision of a pastor or presbyter.

- (i) Ministerial benefits. During the program of rehabilitation the minister shall continue to be eligible for benefits such as the ministers group insurance and Ministers Benefit Association.
- (j) Program administration. The approved rehabilitation program shall be administered by the district presbytery.
- (2) District progress reports. The credentials committee of the district shall submit to the General Council Credentials Committee on February 1 and August 1 of each calendar year a progress report relative to the rehabilitation of ministers under discipline.
- (3) Completion of rehabilitation. When the rehabilitation program has been satisfactorily completed, the suspension shall be lifted and the minister shall be restored to good standing.
- (4) Transfer of information. A rehabilitation information form for district use, prepared and distributed by the general secretary, shall be completed by the district in which the rehabilitation occurred when the rehabilitated minister requests a transfer to a new district. The completed rehabilitation form shall accompany the Certificate of Transfer to another district. A disciplined minister shall, as a condition of entering a rehabilitation program, sign a Limited Disclosure Agreement approved by the General Presbytery allowing the basis of his or her rehabilitation program to be disclosed by the district superintendent or district secretary of a transferring district. The information shall be preserved for future reference in the files of the district in which the rehabilitation occurred and the General Council.
- c. Eligibility of previously dismissed. In the event a minister who has been dismissed requests reinstatement, the district shall first obtain permission from the General Council Credentials Committee before submitting an appropriate rehabilitation program as prescribed in Section 8 of this article. The dismissed minister shall not be eligible for reinstatement until the requirements for rehabilitation have been completed. Consideration may also be given to a minister if in the opinion of the credentials committees he or she has satisfactorily fulfilled the remedial requirements of such rehabilitation.

Section 9. Referral for Action to the General Council Credentials Committee

a. District recommendation

- (1) Rehabilitation. When a minister is to be placed in a rehabilitation program in accordance with Section 8 of this article, the district shall forward to the General Council Credentials Committee the specific charges and recommended terms of rehabilitation. The district shall inform the minister involved of its action and, where applicable, the superintendent of the minister's district of affiliation.
- (2) Dismissal. When a minister has been found guilty of violating any of the Assemblies of God principles as set forth in Bylaws, Article X, Section 3, and it is determined that rehabilitation is not feasible or fails, a minister's credentials are to be terminated by dismissal. The district shall forward to the General Council Credentials Committee the specific charges and its recommendation for dismissal. The district shall inform the minister involved of its action and, where applicable, the superintendent of the minister's district of affiliation.
- b. General Council Credentials Committee action. The General Council Credentials Committee shall consider the recommendation of the district and shall concur if in its judgment the district was justified in the action taken. If the General Council Credentials Committee does not concur, it may remand the case, together with its recommendations, back to the district for review and reconsideration. The district shall report the results of its recommendation to the General Council Credentials Committee for final disposition.
- c. General Council to hold information. All pertinent information relating to the disciplinary action taken against a minister shall be preserved for future reference in the office of the General Council Credentials Committee.
- d. Final disposition. The general secretary shall notify the minister and the district(s) involved of the final disposition of the case.

Section 10. Right of Appeal

- a. Filing of appeal to the General Council Credentials Committee. The right of appeal applies to all actions of discipline and termination of credentials other than lapsing or resigning on the initiative of the minister. An accused minister shall have 30 days from the date notification of the General Council Credentials Committee decision was mailed to appeal to the General Council Credentials Committee. The minister shall be apprised officially of this right at the time notification is given to the minister of the decision of the General Council Credentials Committee. The appeal is to be sent to the office of the general superintendent, and should include any new or exculpatory information not previously considered, with copies sent to the superintendent of the minister's district of affiliation and any other districts involved.
- b. Consideration of appeal by the General Council Credentials Committee. The General Council Credentials Committee may respond to the appeal in one of the following ways:
  - (1) Remanding of case to the district. If in the judgment of the General Council Credentials Committee, justice has not been served, the case shall be remanded to the district presbytery for review and reconsideration. The district shall report the results of its review to the General Council Credentials Committee for final disposition.

- (2) Denial of appeal.
- (a) Forfeiture of right of appeal. No appeal shall be granted by remanding the case to the district presbytery if proof is found of willful neglect on the part of the accused to take advantage of available rights and privileges during the district hearing (see Section 5, 6, & 7 of this Article).
- (b) Insufficient grounds. The General Council Credentials Committee shall have the prerogative to determine whether there is sufficient cause to grant an appeal, and remand the case to the district.
- c. Right of appeal to the General Presbytery. A disciplined minister whose appeal has been denied by the General Council Credentials Committee may appeal to the General Presbytery. An accused minister shall have 30 days from the date notification of the General Council Credentials Committee decision was mailed to appeal to the General Presbytery. The appeal is to be sent to the office of the general superintendent, and should include any new or exculpatory information not previously considered, with copies sent to the superintendent of the minister's district of affiliation and any other districts involved. The decision of the General Presbytery shall be final.

Section 11. Publication of Dismissal

No publication of a dismissed minister's name shall be made until the district has been advised by the office of the general secretary that such has been authorized by the General Council Credentials Committee. An additional 30 days from the date of the notification shall be given the dismissed minister to exercise the right of appeal.

The time-lapse shall be computed from the date of the district presbytery action as it appears on the ministerial status report filed with the General Council Credentials Committee. ### Section 1. Authorization

The Executive Presbytery may from time-to-time establish certain Assemblies of God corporations, which entities are separately legally incorporated for governance purposes from The General Council of the Assemblies of God, but whose boards of directors are appointed by the Executive Presbytery and ratified by the General Presbytery. All such corporations shall be submitted to the General Council for approval.

Section 2. Board of Directors

The oversight of policy and administration of each of the corporations shall be delegated to a Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of the corporation's articles and bylaws. The articles and bylaws of each corporation and amendments thereto shall be approved by the Executive Presbytery and General Presbytery.

Section 3. Amenability

Ministries that represent a national or global ministry focus working with The General Council of the Assemblies of God or its corporations but whose boards of directors are not controlled or appointed by the Executive Presbytery may be recognized by the Executive Presbytery as affiliated ministries.

Section 2. Board of Directors

Each affiliated ministry shall have a Board of Directors that will be responsible for governance and administration of the ministry. The Board of Directors shall be selected by the ministry itself in the manner prescribed by its bylaws, except that the Executive Presbytery shall be authorized to appoint one member of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Governance

Each affiliated ministry shall select and manage its own employees, maintain accounting records, hold title to property, obtain insurance, file tax returns, prepare financial statements, pay salaries and other expenses, raise funds, create and distribute promotional literature, provide charitable contribution receipts to donors, and in all other respects operate as an autonomous legal ministry except as noted in Section 4 through 6, below.

Each affiliated ministry shall be amenable to the Executive Presbytery and General Presbytery with regard to doctrine and compliance with the Constitution and Bylaws of The General Council of the Assemblies of God. In all other respects an affiliated ministry shall be autonomous and self-governed.

Section 5. Name and logo

Affiliated ministries may refer to their status as an affiliated ministry with The General Council of the Assemblies of God but may not use the Assemblies of God name or logo or other indications or marks to convey in any way a formal legal relationship with The General Council of the Assemblies of God or its recognized corporations, unless an exception has been granted by the Executive Presbytery.

Section 6. Dissolution

The charter or bylaws of an affiliated ministry shall specify that in the event of dissolution its assets shall be distributed to The General Council of the Assemblies of God or any Assemblies of God church, district council, or corporation.
